DAILY GAZETTE.

Douglas' Last Letter.

A friend of Senator Douglas furnished the National Intelligencer for publication a copy of the following letter from him on the state of the country :

CHICAGO, May 10, 1861.

MY DEAR SIR:—Being deprived of the use of my arms for the present by a severe attack of rheumatism, I am compelled to avail myself of the services of an amanuensis in reply to your two letters.

It seems that some of my friends are unable to comprehend the difference between arguments used in favor of an equitable compromise, with the hope of averting the horrors of war, and those urged in support of the government and flag of our country, when war is being waged against the United States with the avowed purpose of producing a permanent disruption of the Union and a total destruction of its government.

All hope of compromise with the cotton states was abandoned when they assumed the position that the separation of the Union was complete and final, and that they would never consent to a reconstruction in any contingency—not even if we would furnish them with a blank sheet of paper and permit them to inscribe their own terms.

Still the hope was cherished that reasonable and satisfactory terms of adjustment could be agreed upon with Tennessee, North Carolina, and the border states, and that whatever terms would prove satisfactory to these loyal states would create a Union party in the cotton states, which would be powerful enough at the ballot box to destroy the revolutionary government, and bring those states back into the Union by the voice of their own people. This hope was cherished by Union men north and south, and was never abandoned until actual war was levied at Charleston and the authoritative announcement made by the revolutionary government at Montgomery, that the secession flag should be planted upon the walls of the capitol at Washington, and a proclamation issued inviting the pirates of the world to prey upon the commerce of the United States.

These startling facts, taken in connection with the boastful announcement that the ravages of war and carnage should be quickly transferred from the cotton fields of the south to the wheat fields and corn fields of the north, furnish conclusive evidence that it was the fixed purpose of the secessionists utterly to destroy the government of our fathers and obliterate the United States from the map of the world.

In view of this state of facts there was but one path of duty left to patriotic men. It was not a party question, nor a question involving partizan policy; it was a question of government or no government; country or no country; and hence it became the imperative duty of every Union man, every friend of constitutional liberty, to rally to the support of our common country, its government and flag, as the only means of checking the progress of revolution and of preserving the Union of states.

I am unable to answer your questions in respect to the policy of Mr. Lincoln and his cabinet. I am not in their confidence, as you and the whole country ought to be aware. I am neither the supporter of the partisan policy nor the apologist for the errors of the administration. My previous relations to them remain unchanged; but I trust the time will never come when I shall be unwilling to make any needful sacrifice of personal feeling and party policy for the honor and integrity of my country.

I know of no mode by which a loyal citizen may so well demonstrate his devotion to his country as by sustaining the flag, the constitution, and the Union, under all circumstances, and under every administration, (regardless of party politics,) against all assailants, at home and abroad. The course of Clay and Webster towards the administration of Jackson, in the days of nullification, presents a noble and worthy example for all true patriots. At the very moment when that fearful crisis was precipitated upon the country, partizan strife between whigs and democrats was quite as bitter and relentless as now between democrats and republicans.

The gulf which separated party leaders in those days was quite as broad and deep as that which now separates the democracy from the republicans. But the moment an enemy rose in our midst, plotting the dismemberment of the Union and the destruction of the government, the voice of partisan strife was hushed in patriotic silence. One of the brightest chapters in the history of our country will record the fact that during this eventful period the great leaders of the opposition, sinking the partizan in the patriot, rushed to the support of the government, and became its ablest and bravest defenders against all assailants until the conspiracy was crushed and abandoned, when they resumed their former positions as party leaders upon political issues.

These acts of patriotic devotion have never been deemed evidences of infidelity or political treachery on the part of Clay and Webster, to the principles and organization of the old whig party. Nor have I any apprehension that the firm and unanimous support which the democratic leaders and masses are now giving to the constitution and the Union will be deemed evidences of infidelity to democratic principles, or a want of loyalty to the organization and creed of the democratic party. If we hope to regain and perpetuate the ascendancy of our party, we should never forget that a man can not be a true democrat unless he is a loyal patriot.

With the sincere hope that these my conscientious convictions may coincide with those of my friends,

I am, very truly, yours,
S. A. DOUGLAS.

To Virgil Hicox, Esq., Chairman State Democratic Committee.

THE "HORRORS OF THE MIDDLE PASSAGE."—At the examination of the case of the Salver Brutus yesterday, Mr. Milo R. Robbins, who was one of the crew who shipped to go on a whaling voyage, testified that the number of slaves that were intended to be placed on board the "Brutus" was probably about 700—that upwards of 50 of the slaves were drowned in being conveyed from the shore to the ship, and that over 100 were suffocated on the passage to Cuba, so that out of the 700 slaves they landed somewhere in the vicinity of 500—men, women and children.—Boston Traveler.

TESTIMONIAL.

To Whom it May Concern:

I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I became blind an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr. Folsom as a skillful oculist, I was induced to consult him, though with very little hopes of relief. The doctor proposed an operation, to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of sight to one eye. Heafterwards performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS. VAUGHN.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Douglas' Last Letter.

A friend of Senator Douglas furnished the National Intelligencer for publication a copy of the following letter from him on the state of the country:

CHICAGO, May 10, 1861.

MY DEAR SIR:—Being deprived of the use of my arms for the present by a severe attack of rheumatism, I am compelled to avail myself of the services of an amanuensis in reply to your two letters.

It seems that some of my friends are unable to comprehend the difference between arguments used in favor of an equitable compromise, with the hope of averting the horrors of war, and those urged in support of the government and flag of our country, when war is being waged against the United States with the avowed purpose of producing a permanent disruption of the Union and a total destruction of its government.

All hope of compromise with the cotton states was abandoned when they assumed the position that the separation of the Union was complete and final, and that they would never consent to a reconstruction in any contingency—not even if we would furnish them with a blank sheet of paper and permit them to inscribe their own terms.

Still the hope was cherished that reasonable and satisfactory terms of adjustment could be agreed upon with Tennessee, North Carolina, and the border states, and that whatever terms would prove satisfactory to these loyal states would create a Union party in the cotton states, which would be powerful enough at the ballot box to destroy the revolutionary government, and bring those states back into the Union by the voice of their own people. This hope was cherished by Union men north and south, and was never abandoned until actual war was levied at Charleston and the authoritative announcement made by the revolutionary government at Montgomery, that the secession flag should be planted upon the walls of the capitol at Washington, and a proclamation issued inviting the pirates of the world to prey upon the commerce of the United States.

These startling facts, taken in connection with the boastful announcement that the ravages of war and carnage should be quickly transferred from the cotton fields of the south to the wheat fields and corn fields of the north, furnish conclusive evidence that it was the fixed purpose of the secessionists utterly to destroy the government of our fathers and obliterate the United States from the map of the world.

In view of this state of facts there was but one path of duty left to patriotic men. It was not a party question, nor a question involving partizan policy; it was a question of government or no government; country or no country; and hence it became the imperative duty of every Union man, every friend of constitutional liberty, to rally to the support of our common country, its government and flag, as the only means of checking the progress of revolution and of preserving the Union of states.

I am unable to answer your questions in respect to the policy of Mr. Lincoln and his cabinet. I am not in their confidence, as you and the whole country ought to be aware. I am neither the supporter of the partisan policy nor the apologist for the errors of the administration. My previous relations to them remain unchanged; but I trust the time will never come when I shall be unwilling to make any needful sacrifice of personal feeling and party policy for the honor and integrity of my country.

I know of no mode by which a loyal citizen may so well demonstrate his devotion to his country as by sustaining the flag, the constitution, and the Union, under all circumstances, and under every administration, (regardless of party politics,) against all assailants, at home and abroad. The course of Clay and Webster towards the administration of Jackson, in the days of nullification, presents a noble and worthy example for all true patriots. At the very moment when that fearful crisis was precipitated upon the country, partizan strife between whigs and democrats was quite as bitter and relentless as now between democrats and republicans.

The gulf which separated party leaders in those days was quite as broad and deep as that which now separates the democracy from the republicans. But the moment an enemy rose in our midst, plotting the dismemberment of the Union and the destruction of the government, the voice of partisan strife was hushed in patriotic silence. One of the brightest chapters in the history of our country will record the fact that during this eventful period the great leaders of the opposition, sinking the partizan in the patriot, rushed to the support of the government, and became its ablest and bravest defenders against all assailants until the conspiracy was crushed and abandoned, when they resumed their former positions as party leaders upon political issues.

These acts of patriotic devotion have never been deemed evidences of infidelity or political treachery on the part of Clay and Webster, to the principles and organization of the old whig party. Nor have I any apprehension that the firm and unanimous support which the democratic leaders and masses are now giving to the constitution and the Union will be deemed evidences of infidelity to democratic principles, or a want of loyalty to the organization and creed of the democratic party. If we hope to regain and perpetuate the ascendancy of our party, we should never forget that a man can not be a true democrat unless he is a loyal patriot.

With the sincere hope that these my conscientious convictions may coincide with those of my friends,

I am, very truly, yours,
S. A. DOUGLAS.

To Virgil Hicox, Esq., Chairman State Democratic Committee.

THE "HORRORS OF THE MIDDLE PASSAGE."—At the examination of the case of the Salver Brutus yesterday, Mr. Milo R. Robbins, who was one of the crew who shipped to go on a whaling voyage, testified that the number of slaves that were intended to be placed on board the "Brutus" was probably about 700—that upwards of 50 of the slaves were drowned in being conveyed from the shore to the ship, and that over 100 were suffocated on the passage to Cuba, so that out of the 700 slaves they landed somewhere in the vicinity of 500—men, women and children.—Boston Traveler.

TESTIMONIAL.
To Whom it May Concern:

I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I became blind an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr. Folsom as a skillful oculist, I was induced to consult him, though with very little hopes of relief. The doctor proposed an operation, to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of Sight to one eye. He afterwards performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS. VAUGHN.

Republican State Convention.

A Republican State Convention will be held at the Capital, in the city of Madison, at 12 o'clock M., on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of September next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for state officers.

Each assembly district, under the new apportionment, will be entitled to two delegates in the convention.

The committee recommend that the primary meetings for the selection of delegates be held on or before the 14th day of September, and that the district committees issue early calls for such meetings, that the people may be thoroughly notified, and choose delegates who fairly reflect their wishes.

HORACE RUBLEE,
Chairman State Republican Central Com.
Madison, August 12, 1861.

County Fair.

The committee of citizens who have this fair in charge are actively engaged in making the preparations for it. This committee was appointed at a meeting of the citizens of the county, and it is composed of men whose interest in the agriculture of the county will prompt them to every effort to make the fair successful, and whose pecuniary responsibility and well known character are full guarantees for the redemption of the pledge to promptly pay all the premiums awarded.

We hope the people of Rock county will take hold of this matter energetically. The state fair has been postponed, and surely a hearty co-operation in the county fair will be a relief from the absorbing interest and anxiety inspired by the pending war. These fairs heretofore have been emphatically the peoples' gathering. Neighbors and friends have met for a holiday relaxation, and aside from the immediate benefits of an annual exhibition of the products and industry of the county, the social intercourse always characterising them has been a compensation for the labor and expense attending them. Let then the people of Rock county come together again as in the olden time, and while no duty to an imperiled country is neglected, devote a little time to home interests and home enjoyment.

TRAITORS AT CHICAGO.—On Thursday evening the mayor of Chicago addressed a communication to the common council notifying them that there were sympathisers with the rebels in that city, and spies who were giving information to the enemy, and proposing the passage of an ordinance concerning disloyal citizens. One was immediately adopted making it the duty of the Union Defense Committee to request all persons to leave the city who refuse to take an oath of allegiance to the government; upon refusal the committee is to publish the names of such persons in the daily papers, and report them to the council. Only two councilmen voted against it. The place to begin with in this business was with those two aldermen.

GOOD, IF TRUE.—The Madison Patriot of last evening says:—"The chief rumor about the capitol to-day is that Col. O'Connor of the 2d regiment, has resigned, and Lieut. Col. Harris, late of the 1st, is appointed Colonel. Colonel Harris makes the third officer who has been commissioned commander of the 2d, and as he is one of the best qualified officers in the service, we think his appointment will hold, to the detriment of the enemy and the satisfaction of his brave men."

We trust this rumor is true. Such a change would be a hopeful indication of an improvement that we fear is greatly needed in the 2d regiment.

STATE ITEMS.—The republicans of Waukesha have nominated John Hodgson, of Pewaukee, for senator, to fill the vacancy from that district.

Morgan L. Martin, of Green Bay, has been appointed additional paymaster in the United States army.

A. R. Bushnell has filed his resignation as district attorney of Grant county, and Joseph T. Mills has been appointed his successor.

The Walworth County Badgers, Capt. F. G. Harrington, report 60 men ready, and have been ordered to camp Sept. 1.

J. W. Jefferson, who has been for some years the popular proprietor of the American House, Madison, has received the appointment of Major of the 8th regiment.

The Dodge Co. Volunteers, Juneau, report 85 men, and are authorized to go to quarters after Sept. 1st.

Hon. Luther Hanchett is in Madison.

WESTERN TROOPS.—Dr. Lewis, the surgeon of the 2d regiment, who has just returned from Richmond, where he was for some time a prisoner after the battle of Bull Run, says the rebels declare they can whip the troops from the eastern states with ease, but they think the north-western men are rough customers to encounter. They complain that the western regiments took aim, and that their fire was deadly in the extreme. The proportion of killed to the number hit by bullets was much greater among the rebels than on our side.

GOOD ADVICE.—The entire Catholic clergy of Chicago, by concerted action, have advised all unemployed men in their congregations to enlist in General Fremont's army.

A Friend to America in England.

THE LONDON DAILY NEWS REBUKES THE MALIGNITY OF THE LONDON TIMES.

The London Daily News of the 6th inst., speaks the best voice of England upon the disaster of the Union at Stone Bridge in such fraternal fashion, that we quite forgot there has been any past jealousy in our mutual expressions—any malignity of European journals which hate the republic for freedom's sake—any London Times. The News says:

During the agony of our Indian rebellion, when the fate of an empire trembled in the balance, and the proud heart of England trembled with anguish, the sympathy of Europe, in the presence of a calamity in which the whole of Christendom seemed to partake, was all but universally expressed. Ancient enmities, foreign jealousies, held their peace for awhile, and "natural enemies" vied with the nearest and dearest friends in generous grief and hope. Among foes and aliens, if a tone of sneering pity or of contemptuous regret jarred upon the public ear, it was instantly covered with shame and reprobation by nobler voices. Over the narrow seas a gallant people watched our varying fortunes with that fraternal interest which brave men feel in the actions of the brave; faint and few, indeed, were the mutterings of unmanly and malignant exultation at the tragic vicissitudes of a mortal struggle which history shudders to recall.

But among our kinsmen beyond the Atlantic it was not mere interest that was felt for England at that terrible moment, or common human sympathy; it is but the simple truth to say, that the heroes and the victims of Lucknow and Cawnpoor were honored and lamented by the people of the United States, and the trials and exploits of English courage and endurance treasured up as the immortal part of an invisible inheritance of blood, language and renown. And yet there were voices of hate, envy and savage joy to break the resolute stillness of the national sorrow, and to insult the sympathies of christian Europe.—Abroad, and even at home, there were "Sepoy" journals, which recounted with undisguised satisfaction the horrors of the mutiny, and frantically foretold the end of British rule in India. These "Sepoy" journals, however, had one redeeming merit—the frankness of their ferocious taunts and sinister predictions were appalling; but it was more tolerable than insult and outrage disguised in protesting pity, or simulating regretful amazement and compassion.

When the day of trial and trouble comes again for England, we trust it may not be remembered that the most powerful, and therefore the most responsible, English journals celebrated the issue of the first great battle between the army of the United States and the army of the southern rebels as a loss of all, "even of military honor," to citizen volunteers who had fought for nine hours of a summer's day against overwhelming odds, for a cause as sacred as law and order, as precious as national liberty and unity.

Our contemporary would fain, it should seem, endeavor to reduce the conflict to the dimensions of a border raid or a barbarous brawl. But, as this is impossible, it degrades a war from which anarchy and slavery, or freedom purified and ordered anew for higher purposes, must spring to the proportions of "a senseless and bloody strife." This is not only to caricature living facts; it is to give the lie history. Civil war it was that made the ancestors of the men who fought at Bull Run great and free; though, no doubt, there were disinterested persons in those days who condemned the "senseless and bloody strife" by which our forefathers dearly purchased at the cost of their lives all that their descendants now enjoy.

Civil war, too, though no doubt, it was sometimes "a senseless and bloody strife," has done something for the strength and grandeur, if not for the freedom of France. Had England displayed that "humility and contentment which facilitate peace" in the days of the Stuarts, or France in the face of the coalition of old monarchies, we know not if France would be greater or England freer, but assuredly there would be little enough upon which to congratulate the survivors of either revolution.

The cynical selfishness with which the public opinion of England is so often credited by foreigners has never found a more exalted expression than in these reckless utterances. Nor are these opinions, even in their own sense, discerning or acute. It was to be expected that a defeat of the federal army would, in the eyes of the adroit and abject believers in the sacredness of success, lend to the cause of the south a legitamacy which no reasoning could ever gain for it. Yet already it is clear that the results of the action of the 21st were not so disastrous to the federal army as to forbid altogether a southern advance this year.

The victory of the southern army was due no doubt to superior skill in its leaders, but the choice of a defense position and the arrival of timely re-enforcements must be taken into account on the same side; and the "panic" that decided the issue of the fight is an incident not unparallelled in the military annals of European powers. The losses both in men and material of the federalist force are not so considerable as was at first reported. On the other hand, the scope of the war is infinitely enlarged. And the protraction of the contest is all in favor of those who have the largest reserves of men and means. A defeat of the north shuts the door to compromise, or to acquiescence in any terms the south can offer. The Union is bound to conquer now. The spirit of New England and the northwest will rise to the occasion; and we of the old race, tried and strengthened by many reverses, shall not be surprised if our kinsmen never rest until they have turned defeat into victory. It may be that the triumph of the cause of freedom must date from a defeat. An easy war is often content to subside into an inglorious peace.

THE SOUTHERN PRESS ON MCDOWELL'S REPORT.—The Augusta (Ga). Chronicle and Sentinel of the 18th of August, has a leader on McDowell's report, from which we quote:

McDowell makes no display in his report, but it is a plain detail of his movements, and it shows that he arranged and fought the battle as well as any of Lincoln's generals, with their troops, could have done, not excepting Gen. Scott. He managed it admirably in every respect, and was very nearly successful. * * The columns of Hunter and Heintzleman passed up the Run, crossed at Sudley's Ford, and attempted to turn our left, which was the great feature of the plan. Hunter did cross, did attack as ordered, and did force our men down the Run, where they had to receive the cross fire of Tyler's column, and nothing but the protection of heaven, the genius of Beauregard (who detected Hunter's movement by the clouds of dust,) and the unequaled heroic courage and great endurance of our men; prevented our left being turned, and perhaps the seizure by Hunter of the Manassas railroad at Gainesville.

APPOINTED JUDGE.—Fletcher M. Haight, Esq., formerly of Rochester, but of late years a resident of California, has been appointed judge of the United States district court for the southern district of California.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.

The pickets of Beauregard's army are nearer Arlington Heights than ever before; but this fact, it is believed indicates no attack.

Amos Kendall and family have abandoned their home near this city and removed to Trenton, New Jersey.

It is reported that the English and French fleets on our coast are intended for service at Vera Cruz, intervention in Mexican affairs being the probable design of these governments.

Richard Wallach, who was yesterday appointed Mayor of this city in place of Barrett, is a strong Unionist, and will use all his powers in support of the government.

Capt. Keys, of the District of Columbia militia, was arrested this morning at the chain bridge, and is now in jail.

There was an alarm occasioned at the chain bridge over the Potomac last night, by a report that the enemy was advancing. No enemy appeared.

Special to Commercial.—Private advices from Kentucky represent that state as being on the verge of civil war. The Union men are ready for whatever issue secessionists may force upon them.

Washington is quiet to-day.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.

Samuel J. Anderson, a man well known among sporting men, was arrested this morning on suspicion of being in correspondence with the rebels. Anderson was lately deputy sheriff, and was once in the custom house, and for some time acted as a clerk in the house of representatives in Washington. It is said that most of his appointments were obtained through the influence of A. H. Stevens, vice president of the rebel government, and that he has constantly been in correspondence with him since the commencement of the southern rebellion.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.

John Cochrane's regiment and the 18th Massachusetts regiment left to-day for Washington.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 27.

Gen. Pope has information from East Missouri, that Martin Green instead of threatening to attack Kirksville and Athens, as heretofore reported, is rapidly retreating towards Missouri river. General Hurlbut is pursuing him from Kirksville and Col. Moore from Athens. Green's force is estimated at 1,200, and is supposed to be now in the lower part of Monroe county moving south, and will probably attempt to cross the river in Colloway or Boone counties. This will rid northeast Missouri of his presence and restore quiet in that portion of the state.

BOSTON, Aug. 27.

British brig Forward arrived here to-day from Cienfuegus, and reports that she saw, off Cape Ontaria, on the 4th, the privateer Sumter lying off and on.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.

The navy department is satisfied with the abundant proofs which Com. Porter has presented in refutation of the charge against his loyalty. His own affidavit shows the alleged secession letter to his son to be a forgery.

The secretary of the treasury has just issued a circular of instruction to collectors and other officers of customs, calling their attention to the act of congress to further provide for the collection of duties on imports and for other purposes, approved the 13th of July last, and the proclamation of the President of the 16th of August.

COLUMBUS, Aug. 27.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 27.

Gov. Moore, in the New Orleans Picayune, calls on each family to contribute blankets for the soldiers.

The Savannah Republican says the confederate authorities would within a week complete the defenses so that no federal fleet can enter a harbor, inlet, or land troops on the coast of Georgia.

The Charleston Courier says an iron-clad steamer, named the Randolph, of 155 tons, has been purchased at Savannah for the coast of South Carolina. She makes from thirteen to sixteen knots per hour.

The Little Rock True Democrat, of the 22d, learns that the Missouri state troops under command of Price, left Springfield for Camp Walker on the 16th. McCulloch and his force had gone to Camp Scott.

A second battalion of cavalry has been organized at Knoxville, Tenn.

The Fort Smith Times says an abundance of military stores are being conveyed to McCulloch's army in Missouri.

The Memphis Appeal's Richmond correspondent says there is much sickness in the confederate troops in the neighborhood of Manassas. The water is full of Virginia red weed, and ice is extremely scarce at ten cents per pound.

Special despatch to the Chicago Times.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27—11 P. M.

Fighting is going on this evening near Bailey's and Ball's cross-roads. It is supposed to be nothing more than a skirmish of outposts.

The passes granted heretofore to newspaper reporters to cross the Potomac were revoked to-day.

Three emissaries from Governor Magoffin, of Kentucky, have arrived, and have had an interview with the President. They complain that Mr. Lincoln has violated the neutrality of their state. Their errand will be fruitless.

Captain James Steel, of the Sturgis Rifles, Chicago, has gone to Fortress Monroe, in command of the escort of the mutineers.

BOSTON, Aug. 27.

Hon. Joseph Holt, of Kentucky, made a Union speech in this city. In the course of his remarks he said he nowhere heard the word "compromise," which was now only uttered by traitors. So long as rebels had arms in their hands there was nothing to compromise. He concluded by saying that it was in vain to toil at the pumps while men were kept on board boring holes in the bottom of the ship.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 27.

Washington King, ex-mayor of the city, died very suddenly this afternoon.

Gen. Lyon's body has been embalmed, and was this evening taken to the headquarters of Gen. Fremont. To-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock it will be escorted with full military honors to the cars. Preparations are being made to render to the illustrious dead the honors that will express the respect in which he was held by the Union men of St. Louis. The body will be taken charge of by the Adams Express Co. and taken to his friends, by way of Columbus and Pittsburgh. At a late hour the train from Jefferson had not arrived.

The city is very quiet. The recent order of the provost marshal is having an excellent effect.

At Warrensburg, Johnson county, Mo., on Saturday, 200 rebels, who just returned from McCulloch's forces, broke into the post office, destroyed the mails, opened and destroyed letters to Union men, broke into many of their houses, smashed furniture, wantonly destroyed much property, and drove out families. Eleven hundred of our cavalry, en route for Lexington, will pass through Warrensburg and punish the rebels,

IRONTON, Mo., Aug. 27.

Five thousand men left this point this morning. I cannot give you their destination. They will give a good account of themselves. Gen. Prentiss commands in person. A sufficient force is left to guard the place.

Scouts just in report the enemy 1,500 stong on Cedar creek, also in considerable force on Castor creek, with but few at Greenville. They report their own strength in this section of the state to be 8,000. They subsist on corn meal and fresh beef, are nearly destitute of clothing, and poorly armed.

A deserter from New Madrid says the forces under Pillow, except, perhaps, the Tennessee and Alabama troops, are much demoralized and are mainly held together by the belief that St. Louis will soon fall into their hands. The force at New Madrid under Pillow is about 20,000; at Benton, Scott county, under Jeff Thompson, 8,000; and at Charleston, under Hunter, 800. Our informant also says that two masked batteries, not before heard of, are on the Missouri bank of the Mississippi river, one five miles above New Madrid, and the other about the same distance below. Another masked battery is to be constructed at Dog Tooth Island, about eighteen miles above Cairo, where the river is narrow and deep.

Lead, liquor and many other things were reaching New Madrid in large quantities via Paducah and Columbus, Ky.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

CAIRO, Aug. 27.

There were some symptoms of a fight at Bird's Point to-day. Five scouts sent out from Burrill's White county cavalry encountered a body of rebel cavalry, 60 strong, on Rush Ridge Road, five miles below. The scouts were fired at, killing one horse.—Two made their escape into camp directly; two left their horses and through cornfields made their way here; and one, named Bolen, of White county, is supposed to have been made prisoner. An expedition went out about one o'clock—a detachment of infantry and a squad of cavalry—in hopes of meeting with the rebels. They have returned and report seeing them; but the rebels ent for the woods.

Parties from the Cape by railroad to-day report everything quiet. The rebels are no nearer than Benton. Their pickets, however, are marauding about within five miles.

Scouts report Pillow at Sykeston. Most of his troops having left Madrid, rumor has it that a large body of his command is within six hours march of Bird's Point.

The uniforms of the first brigade are mostly distributed. They look splendid.

The gun boats Tyler and Lexington have gone up the Mississippi and will be back to-morrow.

The Emma Duncan from Cincinnati to St. Louis, reports everything quiet at Paducah.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.

A systematic and strenuous effort is being made by the money interests of Boston and New York to effect a change in the personnel and policy of the cabinet, by the removal of Messrs. Seward, Cameron and Welles. Representing the banks of the two cities, which have just taken the government loan, they claim that they have a right to be heard, and their arrival here creates some sensation. The Boston committee is J. Wiley Edmunds, John C. Gray and William T. Andrews. They have been here two days, and have made a change in the war and navy departments the sole object of their mission. The New York committee have now arrived, and want Mr. Seward removed as well as Cameron and Welles.—They represent the Metropolitan, American Exchange, Commercial, National and Exchange banks, on behalf of the city banks. Inasmuch as the Boston committee has met no encouragement, it is presumed the New York committee will have no better success; or that the two combined will be able to shake Mr. Lincoln's determination to keep the constitutional advisers whom he has chosen.

There is a great increase in the number of patent applications from England and France.

The precise number of traitors or suspected persons whom the Potter committee have found in the service of the government is 188. Of these the state department has 31, treasury department 67, war department 34, attorney general's 16, etc.

Thirty Alexandrians, unwilling to take the oath of allegiance, cannot get passes home, and are obliged to stay here.

Sir John Murray of England has been appointed an assistant adjutant general in our army.

It is reported on good authority that the enemy are advancing in force. They have occupied Bailey's Cross Roads, and taken an inchoate intrenchment of ours this side of there.

Two of our guns were spiked at Arlington the other night.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.

According to the confession of Anderson, arrested here yesterday, he has for months past contributed editorial articles for the News, Day Book and Journal of Commerce. An intercepted letter from Washington advised him to go south via Kentucky, as a passport could not be obtained from the government. He states that Ben Wood and Isaiah Rynders have communicated with the south as extensively as he has done. Anderson's correspondence gives a great deal of important political information, besides implicating parties well known in this state.

A dispatch says the ship Simonds, a British vessel owned in St. Johns, N. B., has been lying in the port of Quebec some three weeks flying the secession flag.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.

Tribune's Correspondence.—Mr. Adams, minister to England, writes that in the British mind the independence of the rebels is fully admitted as a military and political necessity; that their acknowledgement by England is only a question of time and prudent courtesy; that while Great Britain is impatient to get cotton from the south in exchange for manufactured goods, she is anxious not to lose the northern markets, and is unwilling to part with her hope of breaking down the Morrill tariff by the same means with which she chained the north with the Walker tariff, and that two or three more successes like that of Bull's Run would entitle the slaveocracy to immediate recognition.

The steamer Jamestown (by rebel baptism Patrick Henry,) is said to have run the blockade at Fort Monroe and gone out to sea on the night of the 18th. She is fast and must prove dangerous.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

FORTRESS MONROE, Aug. 27.

A flag of truce came from Norfolk to-day to enquire after that which came yesterday and was detained until afternoon to-day. This flag of truce brought Capt. Hussey and crew of the ship O. B. Thompson of Brunswick, Me., captured May 19th off Savannah bar, and taken into Beaufort, N. C., by the privateer Lady Davis.

Two ladies from Norfolk say that the confederates have lately assembled in large force near Sewall's Point, anticipating an attack from Old Point.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 28.

The remains of Gen. Lyon will be escorted with proper ceremonies at 1 o'clock from Gen. Fremont's headquarters to the Ohio & Mississippi R. R. depot, where they will be delivered to Adams' Express Co. to be conveyed east by the 3 o'clock train. The escort to accompany the body east consists of Maj. H. A. Conant, of Gen. Lyon's staff; Captains Plummer and Edgar, U. S. A.; Lieut. Clark, and eight privates of Col. McNiel's regiment U. S. reserve corps.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.

Special to Post.—The enemy's forces are concentrated in large numbers a short distance from the Chain Bridge on the Virginia side of the Potomac, between the Chain Bridge and Leesburg.

The Baltimore Sun of this morning, states that no journal in Baltimore has been requested to withhold the publication of army news.

The recent alteration in the tariff, prevents further exportation (!) of Belgian cloth, known as shoddy.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.

The brig, Grace Worthington, Capt. Frethy, at Belize, Honduras, August 8th, reports that on her passage out, was boarded by a full rigged brig, calling herself a privateer, and belonging to the southern confederacy. After examining her papers, the Grace Worthington was allowed to proceed.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.

The Herald says—Notwithstanding the apparent quietness on the part of United States authorities in this city in relation to the suppression of secession newspapers, it is not true that they are not doing anything in the matter. This morning every mail and express train which leaves this city, carries with it a detective officer, whose duty it is to search all packages and superintend baggage, with the view to ascertain if there are any secession papers in the train, and if so to sieze them; and if any such journals should be found in the possession of any person to bring him to this city, to be properly cared for. Also, as soon as the district attorney, Mr. Delafield Smith, returns to the city, it is said measures will be taken to suppress the publishing of papers which administer aid and comfort to rebels.

The British war steamer Rinaldo is below.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 28.

The body of Sergeant Warren M. Graham, of the 1st Wisconsin regiment, who died from wounds received at the battle of Falling Waters, is on its way here. The chamber of commerce have just offered to defray the expenses of the funeral. The many noble and generous acts of the members of the chamber of commerce of this city entitles them to the esteem and thanks of the whole community.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.

Wheat receipts 71,102 bushels. Market rather more active, but without important change in prices. Sales 60,000 bushels—1,05a1,06 Mil club, 1,08 amber Iowa.

COL. TYLER'S COMMAND.—The report comes from Cincinnati that Col. Tyler's regiment—the 7th Ohio—has had an engagement with Floyd's rebel army, and been badly beaten. The enemy are said to have surrounded them, and if the report is true, (it being as yet unconfirmed,) the particulars will show that the position was carried only after a bloody and desperate fight. At last accounts Col. Tyler was well entrenched at Cross Lanes, 24 miles northeast Gauley Bridge, upon a hill which commands the turnpike leading to Gauley, Summerville, (a few miles distant,) and Lewisburg, in Greenbrier county. His position was such that, although constantly threatened, it was said he could hold it against several times his number. Upon the other side of Summerville, and near it, was the 23d Ohio, Col. Scammon; and still further north, at Sutton, the 13th Ohio, Col. Smith; these three regiments forming the southern division of the line between Gauley Bridge and Clarksburg.

Of all these, however, the position at Cross Lanes was the strongest and most important. The hill was peculiarly favorable to the service of artillery, of which Tyler had several pieces; and earthworks for his infantry rendered the place more easy to defend. Late accounts by mail from Cross Lanes stated the constant danger of attack, and announced that an army of 7,000 men was then on the way from Huttonsville, commanded (it was supposed,) by General Lee himself. Gov. Wise's force was also uncomfortably near, and had captured some of our men, including Capt. Sprague. It is not improbable, therefore, that this overwhelming force may have considered the stronghold at Cross Lanes worth the several hundred lives which they must have lost in taking it. In their hands it breaks the connection between Generals Cox and Rosecrans, and leaves the former in a predicament that may well excite our alarm for his safety.—Chicago Tribune.

DISCUSS NOT POLITICS AT ALL.—When Judge Douglas in his last great speech in Chicago on May 1st enjoined the American people to "cease discussing party issues, make no allusions to old party tests, have no criminations and recriminations, indulge in no taunts against the other, as to who has been the cause of these troubles," he, no doubt wished to prevent the occurrence of just such events as transbired at Braggsville on Saturday last. A couple of worthy citizens of that place having heard that Washington had been bombarded and taken by the rebels, concluded that they would make a pilgrimage to this city, and ascertain the truth of the rumor. One was a staunch Democrat and the other a firm Republican. Mr. Democrat had a buggy and harness, and Mr. Republican was possessed of a horse. It was mutually agreed that they should "hitch teams" and make the journey. After a few miles had been made they both agreed that if Washington had been taken it was a very bad thing.—"Yes," said Mr. Democrat, "but you Republicans are to blame for it. You have got up all this difficulty." To this our Republican, of course, demurred, and charged the whole thing home on the Democrats, as being alone responsible. Then of course there arose "criminations and re-criminations, taunts indulged one against the other," &c., &c., and the consequences that followed might have been suspected.

Mr. Republican concluded that his horse couldn't draw any such man as Mr. Democrat, so he alighted from his buggy, unharnessed his horse and came to Portage on horse back, leaving his Democra associate dividing his time between damming the Republican party, wondering if Washington had been taken, and speculating as how to get his buggy back home again.—Portage City Register.

Stand by the government and the government will stand by you.

What sane man would aid or countenance a parcel of incendiaries who are seeking to set fire to and burn down his own house, and that, too, while sleeping in the upper story?

This is just what the opponents of the government in the present war are doing. They are giving countenance to the men who are seeking to destroy the national structure in which they have found security and protection all their lives, and by the salvation of which they alone can hope for security and protection in the future.—Chicago Journal.

Gerritt Smith on the War.

Gerritt Smith has addressed a scathing letter to the New York state democratic committee to who refused accept the offer of the republicans to unite with them in political action. A great deal of it is appropriate to other latitudes besides New York. We make an extract or two:

"You profess to be in favor of "the vigorous prosecution of the war." Of course you do. For the people are; and to get influence with them you must make them believe that you are. But there is only one way for you to be what you profess to be at this point. It is to help the government carry on the war. But you point to the "hundreds of thousands of democrats in the army to prove that you are helping the government carry it on. In vain! for this only proved that they are helping, not that you are. All honor to these "hundreds of thousands!" and all dishonor to you! Deeply do you wrong them, insultingly do you degrade them by identifying yourselves with them. In this dark hour of our country are they, like you, against its government?—No, they are fighting for it. Or do they, like you, refuse to co-operate with republicans for the salvation of the country? No—God bless them! They rise far above such meanness and wickedness, and stand shoulder with republicans. I can not affirm that you will not succeed in bringing over the democratic masses to your guilty ground. But I can affirm that you do not represent them now.

You do not fail to extol the constitution. Of course not. Messrs. Breckinridge, May, Burnett, Vallandigham do not. For the politician not to extol it when his purpose is to gain something from Americans, would betray as great a lack of cunning as would the omission of the hypocrite to commend the bible when he would gain something from christians. But, gentlemen, I trust an indignant public will teach you that the present is not the proper time for turning men's minds from the country to the constitution—from their urgent duties amidst the appalling necessities of the one to their composed study of the requirements and their prolonged admiration of the merits of the other. It is but a poor sort of philanthropy, which distresses itself over the clothes that the drowning man is carrying with him to the bottom. Very unseasonable is the reading of the "Rules of the Hotel" to its inmates, when the hotel is on fire. But no more so than to remind Americans of the rules of the national constitution, when the rebels are at their throats.

I hope, gentlemen, that you are not traitors. But if you are not, then you are greatly to be pitied for so strongly seeming to be what you are not. If you are not more concerned to conquer the republican party than to conquer the rebels, then never did any men's attitude more belie their spirit. That your purpose is to inspire your party with the deepest distrust of the government, is too obvious for even you to deny. That your success in this would complete the ruin of your country, you may not see. Nevertheless you would see it, were you not blinded by party zeal. I think you will not succeed. I think you will not be able to carry with you the county and town leaders of your party, much less the party itself. Strong as is the partisan spirit in your party, I think the spirit of patriotism in it is stronger. I believe you will not be able to rally an opposition party at the north. As there is but one party at the south, so there will be but one at the north. All the south is for the rebellion, and all the north will be against it.

I believe that the government will stand, and that you will fall. I believe that the democratic as well as the republican party, will consent to postpone the prosecution of party purposes, and the gratification of party predilections, until the rebellion shall be conquered, and the country safe. That done and I shall be as willing to see each party go its own way, as I shall be to see all the wrongs of the south, (if there are any) abundantly redressed, when she shall have ceased from her conspiracy, and laid down her arms. But a curse upon the party that raises its head before the war is ended. And not one word of peace, nor one leaf of the olive branch, nor one concession, however small, to the rebels.—Much as they are worth, and they are worth much, because they are our fellow men, the government and the nation are worth vastly more; and both government and the nation will perish if there shall be the slightest stooping to those who are in arms against both."

Republican State Convention.

A Republican State Convention will be held at the Capital, in the city of Madison, at 12 o'clock M., on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of September next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for state officers.

Each assembly district, under the new apportionment, will be entitled to two delegates in the convention.

The committee recommend that the primary meetings for the selection of delegates be held on or before the 14th day of September, and that the district committees issue early calls for such meetings, that the people may be thoroughly notified, and choose delegates who fairly reflect their wishes.

HORACE RUBLEE,
Chairman State Republican Central Com.
Madison, August 12, 1861.

County Fair.

The committee of citizens who have this fair in charge are actively engaged in making the preparations for it. This committee was appointed at a meeting of the citizens of the county, and it is composed of men whose interest in the agriculture of the county will prompt them to every effort to make the fair successful, and whose pecuniary responsibility and well known character are full guarantees for the redemption of the pledge to promptly pay all the premiums awarded.

We hope the people of Rock county will take hold of this matter energetically. The state fair has been postponed, and surely a hearty co-operation in the county fair will be a relief from the absorbing interest and anxiety inspired by the pending war. These fairs heretofore have been emphatically the peoples' gathering. Neighbors and friends have met for a holiday relaxation, and aside from the immediate benefits of an annual exhibition of the products and industry of the county, the social intercourse always characterising them has been a compensation for the labor and expense attending them. Let then the people of Rock county come together again as in the olden time, and while no duty to an imperiled country is neglected, devote a little time to home interests and home enjoyment.

TRAITORS AT CHICAGO.—On Thursday evening the mayor of Chicago addressed a communication to the common council notifying them that there were sympathisers with the rebels in that city, and spies who were giving information to the enemy, and proposing the passage of an ordinance concerning disloyal citizens. One was immediately adopted making it the duty of the Union Defense Committee to request all persons to leave the city who refuse to take an oath of allegiance to the government; upon refusal the committee is to publish the names of such persons in the daily papers, and report them to the council. Only two councilmen voted against it. The place to begin with in this business was with those two aldermen.

GOOD, IF TRUE.—The Madison Patriot of last evening says:—"The chief rumor about the capitol to-day is that Col. O'Connor of the 2d regiment, has resigned, and Lieut. Col. Harris, late of the 1st, is appointed Colonel. Colonel Harris makes the third officer who has been commissioned commander of the 2d, and as he is one of the best qualified officers in the service, we think his appointment will hold, to the detriment of the enemy and the satisfaction of his brave men."

We trust this rumor is true. Such a change would be a hopeful indication of an improvement that we fear is greatly needed in the 2d regiment.

STATE ITEMS.—The republicans of Waukesha have nominated John Hodgson, of Pewaukee, for senator, to fill the vacancy from that district.

Morgan L. Martin, of Green Bay, has been appointed additional paymaster in the United States army.

A. R. Bushnell has filed his resignation as district attorney of Grant county, and Joseph T. Mills has been appointed his successor.

The Walworth County Badgers, Capt. F. G. Harrington, report 60 men ready, and have been ordered to camp Sept. 1.

J. W. Jefferson, who has been for some years the popular proprietor of the American House, Madison, has received the appointment of Major of the 8th regiment.

The Dodge Co. Volunteers, Juneau, report 85 men, and are authorized to go to quarters after Sept. 1st.

Hon. Luther Hanchett is in Madison.

WESTERN TROOPS.—Dr. Lewis, the surgeon of the 2d regiment, who has just returned from Richmond, where he was for some time a prisoner after the battle of Bull Run, says the rebels declare they can whip the troops from the eastern states with ease, but they think the north-western men are rough customers to encounter. They complain that the western regiments took aim, and that their fire was deadly in the extreme. The proportion of killed to the number hit by bullets was much greater among the rebels than on our side.

GOOD ADVICE.—The entire Catholic clergy of Chicago, by concerted action, have advised all unemployed men in their congregations to enlist in General Fremont's army.

A Friend to America in England.

THE LONDON DAILY NEWS REBUKES THE MALIGNITY OF THE LONDON TIMES.

The London Daily News of the 6th inst., speaks the best voice of England upon the disaster of the Union at Stone Bridge in such fraternal fashion, that we quite forgot there has been any past jealousy in our mutual expressions—any malignity of European journals which hate the republic for freedom's sake—any London Times. The News says:

During the agony of our Indian rebellion, when the fate of an empire trembled in the balance, and the proud heart of England trembled with anguish, the sympathy of Europe, in the presence of a calamity in which the whole of Christendom seemed to partake, was all but universally expressed. Ancient enmities, foreign jealousies, held their peace for awhile, and "natural enemies" vied with the nearest and dearest friends in generous grief and hope. Among foes and aliens, if a tone of sneering pity or of contemptuous regret jarred upon the public ear, it was instantly covered with shame and reprobation by nobler voices. Over the narrow seas a gallant people watched our varying fortunes with that fraternal interest which brave men feel in the actions of the brave; faint and few, indeed, were the mutterings of unmanly and malignant exultation at the tragic vicissitudes of a mortal struggle which history shudders to recall.

But among our kinsmen beyond the Atlantic it was not mere interest that was felt for England at that terrible moment, or common human sympathy; it is but the simple truth to say, that the heroes and the victims of Lucknow and Cawnpoor were honored and lamented by the people of the United States, and the trials and exploits of English courage and endurance treasured up as the immortal part of an invisible inheritance of blood, language and renown. And yet there were voices of hate, envy and savage joy to break the resolute stillness of the national sorrow, and to insult the sympathies of christian Europe.—Abroad, and even at home, there were "Sepoy" journals, which recounted with undisguised satisfaction the horrors of the mutiny, and frantically foretold the end of British rule in India. These "Sepoy" journals, however, had one redeeming merit—the frankness of their ferocious taunts and sinister predictions were appalling; but it was more tolerable than insult and outrage disguised in protesting pity, or simulating regretful amazement and compassion.

When the day of trial and trouble comes again for England, we trust it may not be remembered that the most powerful, and therefore the most responsible, English journals celebrated the issue of the first great battle between the army of the United States and the army of the southern rebels as a loss of all, "even of military honor," to citizen volunteers who had fought for nine hours of a summer's day against overwhelming odds, for a cause as sacred as law and order, as precious as national liberty and unity.

Our contemporary would fain, it should seem, endeavor to reduce the conflict to the dimensions of a border raid or a barbarous brawl. But, as this is impossible, it degrades a war from which anarchy and slavery, or freedom purified and ordered anew for higher purposes, must spring to the proportions of "a senseless and bloody strife." This is not only to caricature living facts; it is to give the lie history. Civil war it was that made the ancestors of the men who fought at Bull Run great and free; though, no doubt, there were disinterested persons in those days who condemned the "senseless and bloody strife" by which our forefathers dearly purchased at the cost of their lives all that their descendants now enjoy.

Civil war, too, though no doubt, it was sometimes "a senseless and bloody strife," has done something for the strength and grandeur, if not for the freedom of France. Had England displayed that "humility and contentment which facilitate peace" in the days of the Stuarts, or France in the face of the coalition of old monarchies, we know not if France would be greater or England freer, but assuredly there would be little enough upon which to congratulate the survivors of either revolution.

The cynical selfishness with which the public opinion of England is so often credited by foreigners has never found a more exalted expression than in these reckless utterances. Nor are these opinions, even in their own sense, discerning or acute. It was to be expected that a defeat of the federal army would, in the eyes of the adroit and abject believers in the sacredness of success, lend to the cause of the south a legitamacy which no reasoning could ever gain for it. Yet already it is clear that the results of the action of the 21st were not so disastrous to the federal army as to forbid altogether a southern advance this year.

The victory of the southern army was due no doubt to superior skill in its leaders, but the choice of a defense position and the arrival of timely re-enforcements must be taken into account on the same side; and the "panic" that decided the issue of the fight is an incident not unparallelled in the military annals of European powers. The losses both in men and material of the federalist force are not so considerable as was at first reported. On the other hand, the scope of the war is infinitely enlarged. And the protraction of the contest is all in favor of those who have the largest reserves of men and means. A defeat of the north shuts the door to compromise, or to acquiescence in any terms the south can offer. The Union is bound to conquer now. The spirit of New England and the northwest will rise to the occasion; and we of the old race, tried and strengthened by many reverses, shall not be surprised if our kinsmen never rest until they have turned defeat into victory. It may be that the triumph of the cause of freedom must date from a defeat. An easy war is often content to subside into an inglorious peace.

THE SOUTHERN PRESS ON McDOWELL'S REPORT.—The Augusta (Ga). Chronicle and Sentinel of the 18th of August, has a leader on McDowell's report, from which we quote:

McDowell makes no display in his report, but it is a plain detail of his movements, and it shows that he arranged and fought the battle as well as any of Lincoln's generals, with their troops, could have done, not excepting Gen. Scott. He managed it admirably in every respect, and was very nearly successful. * * The columns of Hunter and Heintzleman passed up the Run, crossed at Sudley's Ford, and attempted to turn our left, which was the great feature of the plan. Hunter did cross, did attack as ordered, and did force our men down the Run, where they had to receive the cross fire of Tyler's column, and nothing but the protection of heaven, the genius of Beauregard (who detected Hunter's movement by the clouds of dust,) and the unequaled heroic courage and great endurance of our men; prevented our left being turned, and perhaps the seizure by Hunter of the Manassas railroad at Gainesville.

APPOINTED JUDGE.—Fletcher M. Haight, Esq., formerly of Rochester, but of late years a resident of California, has been appointed judge of the United States district court for the southern district of California.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.

The pickets of Beauregard's army are nearer Arlington Heights than ever before; but this fact, it is believed indicates no attack.

Amos Kendall and family have abandoned their home near this city and removed to Trenton, New Jersey.

It is reported that the English and French fleets on our coast are intended for service at Vera Cruz, intervention in Mexican affairs being the probable design of these governments.

Richard Wallach, who was yesterday appointed Mayor of this city in place of Barrett, is a strong Unionist, and will use all his powers in support of the government.

Special to Commercial.—Private advices from Kentucky represent that state as being on the verge of civil war. The Union men are ready for whatever issue secessionists may force upon them.

Washington is quiet to-day.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.

Samuel J. Anderson, a man well known among sporting men, was arrested this morning on suspicion of being in correspondence with the rebels. Anderson was lately deputy sheriff, and was once in the custom house, and for some time acted as a clerk in the house of representatives in Washington. It is said that most of his appointments were obtained through the influence of A. H. Stevens, vice president of the rebel government, and that he has constantly been in correspondence with him since the commencement of the southern rebellion.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.

John Cochrane's regiment and the 18th Massachusetts regiment left to day for Washington.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 27.

Gen. Pope has information from East Missouri, that Martin Green instead of threatening to attack Kirksville and Athens, as heretofore reported, is rapidly retreating towards Missouri river. General Hurlbut is pursuing him from Kirksville and Col. Moore from Athens. Green's force is estimated at 1,200, and is supposed to be now in the lower part of Monroe county moving south, and will probably attempt to cross the river in Colloway or Boone counties. This will rid northeast Missouri of his presence and restore quiet in that portion of the state.

BOSTON, Aug. 27.

British brig Forward arrived here to-day from Cienfuegus, and reports that she saw, off Cape Ontaria, on the 4th, the privateer Sumter lying off and on.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.

The navy department is satisfied with the abundant proofs which Com. Porter has presented in refutation of the charge against his loyalty. His own affidavit shows the alleged secession letter to his son to be a forgery.

The secretary of the treasury has just issued a circular of instruction to collectors and other officers of customs, calling their attention to the act of congress to further provide for the collection of duties on imports and for other purposes, approved the 13th of July last, and the proclamation of the President of the 16th of August.

The Charleston Courier says an iron-clad steamer, named the Randolph, of 155 tons, has been purchased at Savannah for the coast of South Carolina. She makes from thirteen to sixteen knots per hour.

The Little Rock True Democrat, of the 22d, learns that the Missouri state troops under command of Price, left Springfield for Camp Walker on the 16th. McCulloch and his force had gone to Camp Scott.

A second battalion of cavalry has been organized at Knoxville, Tenn.

The Fort Smith Times says an abundance of military stores are being conveyed to McCulloch's army in Missouri.

The Memphis Appeal's Richmond correspondent says there is much sickness in the confederate troops in the neighborhood of Manassas. The water is full of Virginia red-weed, and ice is extremely scarce at ten cents per pound.

Special despatch to the Chicago Times.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27—11 P. M.

Fighting is going on this evening near Bailey's and Ball's cross-roads. It is supposed to be nothing more than a skirmish of outposts.

The passes granted heretofore to newspaper reporters to cross the Potomac were revoked to-day.

Three emissaries from Governor Magoffin, of Kentucky, have arrived, and have had an interview with the President. They complain that Mr. Lincoln has violated the neutrality of their state. Their errand will be fruitless.

Captain James Steel, of the Sturgis Rifles, Chicago, has gone to Fortress Monroe, in command of the escort of the mutineers.

BOSTON, Aug. 27.

Hon. Joseph Holt, of Kentucky, made a Union speech in this city. In the course of his remarks he said he nowhere heard the word "compromise," which was now only uttered by traitors. So long as rebels had arms in their hands there was nothing to compromise. He concluded by saying that it was in vain to toil at the pumps while men were kept on board boring holes in the bottom of the ship.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 27.

Washington King, ex-mayor of the city, died very suddenly this afternoon.

Gen. Lyon's body has been embalmed, and was this evening taken to the headquarters of Gen. Fremont. To-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock it will be escorted with full military honors to the cars. Preparations are being made to render to the illustrious dead the honors that will express the respect in which he was held by the Union men of St. Louis. The body will be taken charge of by the Adams Express Co. and taken to his friends, by way of Columbus and Pittsburgh. At a late hour the train from Jefferson had not arrived.

The city is very quiet. The recent order of the provost marshal is having an excellent effect.

At Warrensburg, Johnson county, Mo., on Saturday, 200 rebels, who just returned from McCulloch's forces, broke into the post office, destroyed the mails, opened and destroyed letters to Union men, broke into many of their houses, smashed furniture, wantonly destroyed much property, and drove out families. Eleven hundred of our cavalry, en route for Lexington, will pass through Warrensburg and punish the rebels.

IRONTON, Mo., Aug. 27.

Five thousand men left this point this morning. I cannot give you their destination. They will give a good account of themselves. Gen. Prentiss commands in person. A sufficient force is left to guard the place.

Scouts just in report the enemy 1,500 stong on Cedar creek, also in considerable force on Castor creek, with but few at Greenville. They report their own strength in this section of the state to be 8,000. They subsist on corn meal and fresh beef, are nearly destitute of clothing, and poorly armed.

A deserter from New Madrid says the forces under Pillow, except, perhaps, the Tennessee and Alabama troops, are much demoralized and are mainly held together by the belief that St. Louis will soon fall into their hands. The force at New Madrid under Pillow is about 20,000; at Benton, Scott county, under Jeff Thompson, 8,000; and at Charleston, under Hunter, 800. Our informant also says that two masked batteries, not before heard of, are on the Missouri bank of the Mississippi river, one five miles above New Madrid, and the other about the same distance below. Another masked battery is to be constructed at Dog Tooth Island, about eighteen miles above Cairo, where the river is narrow and deep.

Lead, liquor and many other things were reaching New Madrid in large quantities via Paducah and Columbus, Ky.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

CAIRO, Aug. 27.

There were some symptoms of a fight at Bird's Point to-day. Five scouts sent out from Burrill's White county cavalry encountered a body of rebel cavalry, 60 strong, on Rush Ridge Road, five miles below. The scouts were fired at, killing one horse.—Two made their escape into camp directly; two left their horses and through cornfields made their way here; and one, named Bolen, of White county, is supposed to have been made prisoner. An expedition went out about one o'clock—a detachment of infantry and a squad of cavalry—in hopes of meeting with the rebels. They have returned and report seeing them; but the rebels cut for the woods.

Parties from the Cape by railroad to-day report everything quiet. The rebels are no nearer than Benton. Their pickets, however, are marauding about within five miles.

Scouts report Pillow at Sykeston. Most of his troops having left Madrid, rumor has it that a large body of his command is within six hours march of Bird's Point.

The uniforms of the first brigade are mostly distributed. They look splendid.

The gun boats Tyler and Lexington have gone up the Mississippi and will be back to-morrow.

The Emma Duncan from Cincinnati to St. Louis, reports everything quiet at Paducah.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.

A systematic and strenuous effort is being made by the money interests of Boston and New York to effect a change in the personnel and policy of the cabinet, by the removal of Messrs. Seward, Cameron and Welles. Representing the banks of the two cities, which have just taken the government loan, they claim that they have a right to be heard, and their arrival here creates some sensation. The Boston committee is J. Wiley Edmunds, John C. Gray and William T. Andrews. They have been here two days, and have made a change in the war and navy departments the sole object of their mission. The New York committee have now arrived, and want Mr. Seward removed as well as Cameron and Welles.—They represent the Metropolitan, American Exchange, Commercial, National and Exchange banks, on behalf of the city banks. Inasmuch as the Boston committee has met no encouragement, it is presumed the New York committee will have no better success; or that the two combined will be able to shake Mr. Lincoln's determination to keep the constitutional advisers whom he has chosen.

There is a great increase in the number of patent applications from England and France.

The precise number of traitors or suspected persons whom the Potter committee have found in the service of the government is 188. Of these the state department has 31, treasury department 67, war department 34, attorney general's 16, etc.

Thirty Alexandrians, unwilling to take the oath of allegiance, cannot get passes home, and are obliged to stay here.

Sir John Murray of England has been appointed an assistant adjutant general in our army.

It is reported on good authority that the enemy are advancing in force. They have occupied Bailey's Cross Roads, and taken an inchoate intrenchment of ours this side of there.

Two of our guns were spiked at Arlington the other night.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.

According to the confession of Anderson, arrested here yesterday, he has for months past contributed editorial articles for the News, Day Book and Journal of Commerce. An intercepted letter from Washington advised him to go south via Kentucky, as a passport could not be obtained from the government. He states that Ben Wood and Isaiah Rynders have communicated with the south as extensively as he has done. Anderson's correspondence gives a great deal of important political information, besides implicating parties well known in this state.

A dispatch says the ship Simonds, a British vessel owned in St. Johns, N. B., has been lying in the port of Quebec some three weeks flying the secession flag.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.

Tribune's Correspondence.—Mr. Adams, minister to England, writes that in the British mind the independence of the rebels is fully admitted as a military and political necessity; that their acknowledgement by England is only a question of time and prudent courtesy; that while Great Britain is impatient to get cotton from the south in exchange for manufactured goods, she is anxious not to lose the northern markets, and is unwilling to part with her hope of breaking down the Morrill tariff by the same means with which she chained the north with the Walker tariff, and that two or three more successes like that of Bull's Run would entitle the slaveocracy to immediate recognition.

The steamer Jamestown (by rebel baptism Patrick Henry,) is said to have run the blockade at Fort Monroe and gone out to sea on the night of the 18th. She is fast and must prove dangerous.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

FORTRESS MONROE, Aug. 27.

A flag of truce came from Norfolk to-day to enquire after that which came yesterday and was detained until afternoon to-day. This flag of truce brought Capt. Hussey and crew of the ship O. B. Thompson of Brunswick, Me., captured May 19th off Savannah bar, and taken into Beaufort, N. C., by the privateer Lady Davis.

Two ladies from Norfolk say that the confederates have lately assembled in large force near Sewall's Point, anticipating an attack from Old Point.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 28.

The remains of Gen. Lyon will be escorted with proper ceremonies at 1 o'clock from Gen. Fremont's headquarters to the Ohio & Mississippi R. R. depot, where they will be delivered to Adams' Express Co. to be conveyed east by the 3 o'clock train. The escort to accompany the body east consists of Maj. H. A. Conant, of Gen. Lyon's staff; Captains Plummer and Edgar, U. S. A.; Lieut. Clark, and eight privates of Col. McNiel's regiment U. S. reserve corps.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.

Special to Post.—The enemy's forces are concentrated in large numbers a short distance from the Chain Bridge on the Virginia side of the Potomac, between the Chain Bridge and Leesburg.

The Baltimore Sun of this morning, states that no journal in Baltimore has been requested to withhold the publication of army news.

The recent alteration in the tariff, prevents further exportation (!) of Belgian cloth, known as shoddy.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.

The brig, Grace Worthington, Capt. Frethy, at Belize, Honduras, August 8th, reports that on her passage out, was boarded by a full-rigged brig, calling herself a privateer, and belonging to the southern confederacy. After examining her papers, the Grace Worthington was allowed to proceed.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.

The Herald says—Notwithstanding the apparent quietness on the part of United States authorities in this city in relation to the suppression of secession newspapers, it is not true that they are not doing anything in the matter. This morning every mail and express train which leaves this city, carries with it a detective officer, whose duty it is to search all packages and superintend baggage, with the view to ascertain if there are any secession papers in the train, and if so to sieze them; and if any such journals should be found in the possession of any person to bring him to this city, to be properly cared for. Also, as soon as the district attorney, Mr. Delafield Smith, returns to the city, it is said measures will be taken to suppress the publishing of papers which administer aid and comfort to rebels.

The British war steamer Rinaldo is below.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 28.

The body of Sergeant Warren M. Graham, of the 1st Wisconsin regiment, who died from wounds received at the battle of Falling Waters, is on its way here. The chamber of commerce have just offered to defray the expenses of the funeral. The many noble and generous acts of the members of the chamber of commerce of this city entitles them to the esteem and thanks of the whole community.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.

Wheat receipts 71,102 bushels. Market rather more active, but without important change in prices. Sales 60,000 bushels—1,05a1,06 Mil club, 1,08 amber Iowa.

COL. TYLER'S COMMAND.—The report comes from Cincinnati that Col. Tyler's regiment—the 7th Ohio—has had an engagement with Floyd's rebel army, and been badly beaten. The enemy are said to have surrounded them, and if the report is true, (it being as yet unconfirmed,) the particulars will show that the position was carried only after a bloody and desperate fight. At last accounts Col. Tyler was well entrenched at Cross Lanes, 24 miles northeast Gauley Bridge, upon a hill which commands the turnpike leading to Gauley, Summerville, (a few miles distant,) and Lewisburg, in Greenbrier county. His position was such that, although constantly threatened, it was said he could hold it against several times his number. Upon the other side of Summerville, and near it, was the 23d Ohio, Col. Scammon; and still further north, at Sutton, the 13th Ohio, Col. Smith; these three regiments forming the southern division of the line between Gauley Bridge and Clarksburg.

Of all these, however, the position at Cross Lanes was the strongest and most important. The hill was peculiarly favorable to the service of artillery, of which Tyler had several pieces; and earthworks for his infantry rendered the place more easy to defend. Late accounts by mail from Cross Lanes stated the constant danger of attack, and announced that an army of 7,000 men was then on the way from Huttonsville, commanded (it was supposed,) by General Lee himself. Gov. Wise's force was also uncomfortably near, and had captured some of our men, including Capt. Sprague. It is not improbable, therefore, that this overwhelming force may have considered the stronghold at Cross Lanes worth the several hundred lives which they must have lost in taking it. In their hands it breaks the connection between Generals Cox and Rosecrans, and leaves the former in a predicament that may well excite our alarm for his safety.—Chicago Tribune.

DISCUSS NOT POLITICS AT ALL.—When Judge Douglas in his last great speech in Chicago on May 1st enjoined the American people to "cease discussing party issues, make no allusisns to old party tests, have no criminations and recriminations, indulge in no taunts against the other, as to who has been the cause of these troubles," he, no doubt wished to prevent the occurrence of just such events as transbired at Braggsville on Saturday last. A couple of worthy citizens of that place having heard that Washington had been bombarded and taken by the rebels, concluded that they would make a pilgrimage to this city, and ascertain the truth of the rumor. One was a staunch Democrat and the other a firm Republican. Mr. Democrat had a buggy and harness, and Mr. Republican was possessed of a horse. It was mutually agreed that they should "hitch teams" and make the journey. After a few miles had been made they both agreed that if Washington had been taken it was a very bad thing.—"Yes," said Mr. Democrat, "but you Republicans are to blame for it. You have got up all this difficulty." To this our Republican, of course, demurred, and charged the whole thing home on the Democaats, as being alone responsible. Then of course there arose "criminations and re-criminations, taunts indulged one against the other," &c., &c., and the consequences that followed might have been suspected.

Mr. Republican concluded that his horse couldn't draw any such man as Mr. Democrat, so he alighted from his buggy, unharnessed his horse and came to Portage on horse back, leaving his Democra associate dividing his time between damming the Republican party, wondering if Washington had been taken, and speculating as how to get his buggy back home again.—Portage City Register.

Stand by the government and the government will stand by you.

What sane man would aid or countenance a parcel of incendiaries who are seeking to set fire to and burn down his own house, and that, too, while sleeping in the upper story?

This is just what the opponents of the government in the present war are doing. They are giving countenance to the men who are seeking to destroy the national structure in which they have found security and protection all their lives, and by the salvation of which they alone can hope for security and protection in the future.—Chicago Journal.

Gerritt Smith on the War.

Gerritt Smith has addressed a scathing letter to the New York state democratic committee to who refused accept the offer of the republicans to unite with them in political action. A great deal of it is appropriate to other latitudes besides New York. We make an extract or two:

"You profess to be in favor of "the vigorous prosecution of the war." Of course you do. For the people are; and to get influence with them you must make them believe that you are. But there is only one way for you to be what you profess to be at this point. It is to help the government carry on the war. But you point to the "hundreds of thousands of democrats in the army to prove that you are helping the government carry it on. In vain! for this only proved that they are helping, not that you are. All honor to these "hundreds of thousands!" and all dishonor to you! Deeply do you wrong them, insultingly do you degrade them by identifying yourselves with them. In this dark hour of our country are they, like you, against its government?—No, they are fighting for it. Or do they, like you, refuse to co-operate with republicans for the salvation of the country? No—God bless them! They rise far above such meanness and wickedness, and stand shoulder with republicans. I can not affirm that you will not succeed in bringing over the democratic masses to your guilty ground. But I can affirm that you do not represent them now.

You do not fail to extol the constitution. Of course not. Messrs. Breckinridge, May, Burnett, Vallandigham do not. For the politician not to extol it when his purpose is to gain something from Americans, would betray as great a lack of cunning as would the omission of the hypocrite to commend the bible when he would gain something from christians. But, gentlemen, I trust an indignant public will teach you that the present is not the proper time for turning men's minds from the country to the constitution—from their urgent duties amidst the appalling necessities of the one to their composed study of the requirements and their prolonged admiration of the merits of the other. It is but a poor sort of philanthropy, which distresses itself over the clothes that the drowning man is carrying with him to the bottom. Very unseasonable is the reading of the "Rules of the Hotel" to its inmates, when the hotel is on fire. But no more so than to remind Americans of the rules of the national constitution, when the rebels are at their throats.

* * * * * *

I hope, gentlemen, that you are not traitors. But if you are not, then you are greatly to be pitied for so strongly seeming to be what you are not. If you are not more concerned to conquer the republican party than to conquer the rebels, then never did any men's attitude more belie their spirit. That your purpose is to inspire your party with the deepest distrust of the government, is too obvious for even you to deny. That your success in this would complete the ruin of your country, you may not see. Nevertheless you would see it, were you not blinded by party zeal. I think you will not succeed. I think you will not be able to carry with you the county and town leaders of your party, much less the party itself. Strong as is the partisan spirit in your party, I think the spirit of patriotism in it is stronger. I believe you will not be able to rally an opposition party at the north. As there is but one party at the south, so there will be but one at the north. All the south is for the rebellion, and all the north will be against it.

I believe that the government will stand, and that you will fall. I believe that the democratic as well as the republican party, will consent to postpone the prosecution of party purposes, and the gratification of party predilections, until the rebellion shall be conquered, and the country safe. That done and I shall be as willing to see each party go its own way, as I shall be to see all the wrongs of the south, (if there are any) abundantly redressed, when she shall have ceased from her conspiracy, and laid down her arms. But a curse upon the party that raises its head before the war is ended. And not one word of peace, nor one leaf of the olive branch, nor one concession, however small, to the rebels.—Much as they are worth, and they are worth much, because they are our fellow men, the government and the nation are worth vastly more; and both government and the nation will perish if there shall be the slightest stooping to those who are in arms against both."

War Meeting Last Night.

This meeting was well attended last evening, and the commencement made of what we hope will prove an efficient and practical organization, which will concentrate the discursive efforts of the past season. The committee appointed to report a plan of organization "by which the resources of Rock county in men and means shall be made effective in the present crisis of our country," consists of Messrs. H. N. Comstock, Hamilton Richardson, H. C. Tilton, S. C. Spaulding and Edward McKey. We learn that the committee held a meeting this morning and appointed Messrs. Richardson and Tilton to wait upon the Governor and procure such information, and make, if possible, such arrangements as will aid the object of the meeting.

Another good feature of the meeting was the appointment of a committee, consisting of R. B. Treat, W. M. Tallman, S. J. M. Putnam, S. C. Burnham and C. G. Williams, to aid Mr. Ruger in the formation of a company of sappers and miners, by providing for the board of the men before leaving for duty.

The meeting adjourned to meet again at the call of the committee on a plan of organisation.

LIEUT. RUGER'S COMPANY.—It will be seen by a notice from Lieut. Ruger that the time for which he will receive enlistments expires next Saturday; consequently those who desire to go with him must report themselves as soon as that time. The inducements for mechanics and laborers to engage in this service are such that a large company will probably be organized. See the notice of Lieut. R.

SENATOR DOUGLAS' LAST LETTER.—We publish this letter on our first page today. It is as timely and appropriate as when it was written, and its patriotic sentiments should be faithfully cherished.

JANESVILLE FIRE ZOUAVES.—In a few days this company will depart for Camp Randall, and be mustered into one of the regiments now being formed by the state. It is composed of excellent material, both men and officers. They have not yet enlisted quite all the men they need to make up the maximum number. This opportunity should not be suffered to pass, by those who wish to volunteer. We venture to say that no one can find in any company in the state better officers—those who will be more kind and considerate towards their men, while at the same time they are brave and capable. We hope there will be no hesitation in filling up the company. The pay is liberal; better perhaps than can be expected in these times of uncertain employment, in any business. The remuneration is constant, whether the soldier is sick or well. Clothing is furnished, and medical attendance without cost. At the end of the war there will be a bounty of $100 paid to each soldier. Taking all these things into consideration, the wages for single man will be equal to twenty dollars, and to a man of family, twenty-five dollars per month. The remuneration is liberal, while the inducements of a patriotic nature were never, in any war of which history gives any account, to be compared with those which now call our people to arms.

It is to be hoped that those who have concluded to join the Fire Zouaves of this city will all come forward without delay and signify their intentions. No one, we think, should hesitate on account of the possibility of the formation of other companies or regiments. All these contingencies are uncertain, while the chance is now open to unite with a good company. Volunteers cannot do better by delaying the matter, but should join at once.

"WAIT FOR THE BIG SHOW."—Next Saturday the "Big Show" advertised in our columns will exhibit in this city. It combines the attractions of a menagerie and circus, and both are to be seen for the price of either one if separately exhibited. As the work in the harvest field is about finished, there is likely to be a large crowd of people in town to see the show.

OFF FOR MADISON.—We understand that the Fire Zouaves of this city have orders to go to Madison on Tuesday morning next.

WASHINGTON ENGINE CO. NO. 3.—The regular monthly meeting of this company will be held at their house next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Let every member be on hand. J. T. WILCOX, Sec'y.

TRINITY CHURCH.—The annual renting of slips in Trinity Church will take place on Monday, Sept. 2d, at 10½ o'clock A. M., in the church. aug23d7d

LAPPIN'S HALL TO-NIGHT.—The concert of Miss Richings will be given to-night at Lappin's Hall. Don't fail to attend.—You will be well repaid for the expenditure of your time and money. The entertainment will be diversified, and every one will be especially pleased with some part of it while the whole will give satisfaction.

DEATH OF WARREN M. GRAHAM.—We have, at last, the sad, but long-expected intelligence that young GRAHAM died yesterday, at Hagerstown, Md., from wounds received at the battle of Falling Waters.—For many weeks he has lingered between life and death, but the terrible Minnie balls that pierced his body were too severe for even his iron constitution. He received every attention during his last illness; his mother and father were both present, so all that love and skill could do have been tried in vain.—Wisconsin.

☞ Dr. S. P. Thornhill, of Hudson, formerly a resident of this city, has been commissioned as surgeon of the 8th regiment.

Resolutions of Water Witch Engine Company No. 2.

At a meeting of the above company, held at their hall, Tuesday evening, Aug. 27th, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted and ordered to be published:—

WHEREAS: Several of the members of Water Witch Engine Co. No. 2 have nobly responded to the call of their country and enlisted to fight her battles; and

WHEREAS, We the members of said company not only feel a deep interest in the cause they have espoused—but also in the individual welfare of those, who have so recently been connected with us, by the closest ties of friendship. And,

WHEREAS: Some of those who have thus severed their connection with us, have in the past, held offices of honor and trust, in our organization—offices, the duties of which they have always well and faithfully discharged. Therefore,

Resolved, That in the resignation of our late Foreman, C. P. KING, who has so long been one of our members, and who during his connection with us, has held various positions in our company from that of hose boy to foreman, filling each and all of them with honor to himself and credit to our organization—we lose the society of an excellent fireman and officer,—a kind-hearted and whole souled friend, and one whom we confidently believe, will in the battle-field, as 1st Lieut. of the Fire Zouaves of this city, do credit to himself, to his country, and the company of which he has so long been an honored member.

Resolved, That in the appointment of our late secretary, WM. H. SARGENT, as Orderly Sergeant of the Fire Zouaves, we recognize one which was eminently fit to have been made, and that while as secretary of our company he made a most accomplished officer, so we believe that as orderly sergeant of the Fire Zouaves, he will exhibit the same industry and energy, in the discharge of his official duties, and upon the field of danger, will act as only becomes the brave man, and patriotic soldier.

Resolved, That while we sincerely regret being compelled to part with our friends and companions, all of whom have endeared themselves to us by years of the closest intimacy and companionship, we are yet reconciled to their loss by the knowledge, that duty and patriotism have called them to the defence of "the constitution and the laws,"—that we have the most implicit faith in their courage and in the earnestness of purpose which has induced them to respond to that call; and we believe, not doubtingly but confidently, that when in front of the traitorous foe, upon the bloody-field, they will respond to the command of their officers with as much of alacrity as heretofore in battles with the fire, they have answered with their might to the call of King's, "NOW THEN WITH A WILL, MY BOYS, BRAKE HER DOWN." Believing this, we have only to say to our late friends and companions, "Go, and may the God of battles guard you in the hour of danger." Go, and may the flag of the free through your agency and such as you, again float over the freest and proudest republic on earth. Go! and after the work shall have been accomplished, living you will receive the plaudits of millions of patriots; dying you will be mourned by a grateful people, and under all circumstances, you will possess the glorious consolation of having discharged well that duty, which wins the soldier's wreath, or decks the soldier's grave.

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions, signed by the foreman and secretary, be published in the daily papers of this city.

H. RICHARDS, Ass't Foreman.

ADAM SKELLY, Secretary pro tem.

A BETTER PROSPECT.—Since a military board of examination has been established to examine the qualifications of all commissioned officers, 225 volunteer officers have resigned. Probably many of these officers feared the result of an examination, in exposing their want of qualifications. There is good reason to believe that those who are retained, or will be accepted hereafter, will be qualified for their responsible duties.

THE DIFFERENCE.—Every man at the North is free to choose whether he will go into this war or stay at home. Every man at the south is compelled to go into the ranks whether he will or no. No man at the North lives under any apprehension as to the safety of his home, his person his property there. No man at the south is exempt from a constant fear, that, sooner or later, the war will come, with all its horrors, to his very door.

The Northern soldier, if he succeeds maintains a great government; if he fails is a patriot dying at his post of duty. The southern soldier, if he succeeds, consigns a nation to anarchy: if he fails is a disgraced traitor. The one carries the flag in hand, the other a halter about his neck.

In a word the south fights with desperation, and because it is desperate, puts forth all its strength at the start. Hence, its victories must be won then if at all. The North only by degrees brings out its vast resources, and will have strength in reserve after the south is exhausted. Hence, its victories may be slow in coming, but they are inevitable at last, and will be permanent.

AN EXAMPLE TO BE IMITATED.—If our army and navy have presented some lamentable instances of disaffection and desertion of duty the heroism and patriotic devotion that are being daily displayed by the loyal members of both professions more than compensate for the pain which such spectacles have afforded. We give the following extract from a letter from a distinguished naval officer now in the blockading squadron, to his wife, as an example which animates both services.

"I want you to live in the most frugal manner possible, and if you can save money from your income by the strictest economy, loan it to the government, if it be but fifty dollars, or a hundred dollars, to assist in the smallest mite to maintain the Constitution of the United States and the supremacy of the law. The present condition of our once happy country is enough to make the angels weep."

The feelings suggested by the above is one of the pleasures that men like the writer are in the public service and not only willing to fight but to economize for the Union.—New York Herald.

COTTON SHIPPED TO EUROPE FROM THIS PORT.—During the past week a large quantity of cotton has arrived at this port, from Providence, for the purpose of being shipped to Europe. This is owing no doubt to most of the factories in Lowell being closed and the price of cotton at present is from sixteen to eighteen cents per pound. The stores in Providence are said to be full.—N. Y. Eve. Post, 23d.

FEW DIE AND NONE RESIGN.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune says:—

No applications have been made under the new retiring law for the navy. Consequently, no board has been called together. It is not improbable that broad hints will be given to some old gentlemen, unless they move in this matter speedily.

Sappers and Miners, Attention!

You will report yourselves at Janesville on or before Saturday, August 31st. You will leave here September 2d, on the morning train for Chicago, and will there be mustered into the service of the United States and receive your equipments, going thence directly to St. Louis. Let no man fail to respond. Quarters are provided for you. EDWARD RUGER,

Acting Lieut. Eng'r Reg't of the West.

MEN AND PATRIOTS!

Pause and reflect. Your country needs your service! Will you respond? Then enlist with the Sappers and Miners, and join our own brave soldiers of the west under the gallant Fremont.

Great inducements are offered. It is the highest and best branch of the service and the best pay. Be true sons of the republic and come forward and enlist. Mechanics enlist! Men not mechanics enlist! I will receive all strong men and true, that come. Let every man that readeth come. For further particulars enquire of the undersigned, office in county building with clerk of the board, or at first door south of Lawrence & Atwood's store. EDWARD RUGER,

Janesville, August 27th, 1861. Acting Lieut.

INDISPENSABLE.—If you want healthy, light bread, biscuit and pastry of all kinds, use only D. B. De Land & Co.'s Chemical Saleratus. It is truly the "housewife's favorite," and is indispensable in producing the above results. You can get it of all respectable dealers everywhere.

ONE WAY TO CIRCULATE REBEL SHEETS.—The New York News being hard up for subscribers, on account of its rabid secession proclivities, is being distributed gratuitously to all who will take it. Here is one the secrets, "confidential" circulars;

CONFIDENTIAL.

Mr.— Sir:—I understand you to be an influential man of—county. I take the liberty of sending you our paper, the Daily News, for one month. The cost is defrayed by a society, whose object is to enlist the talent of the state in favor of peace measures. Should you think proper to become a subsciber after that date, please signify the same.

HOW A MAN FEELS WHEN HE IS WOUNDED, AND HOW IT GOES TO BE SHOT AT.—We take the following from a letter written by one of the gallant Iowa volunteers, who fought in the battle near Springfield, Missouri:

I was standing, or rather kneeling, behind a little bush, reloading my musket, just before the rebels engaged in this close work retreated. Suddenly I felt a sharp pain in the shoulder, and fell to the ground. Jumping up, one of our boys asked me if I was hurt. I replied I thought not, drew up my musket to fire, when he said: "Yes, you are shot right through the shoulder." I think it was this remark, more than the wound, which caused the field, all at once, to commence whirling around me in a very strange manner. I started to leave it, with a half ounce musket ball in my shoulder, and once or twice fell down with dizziness; but in a short time recovered sufficiently to be able to walk back to Springfield, nine miles, where the ball was taken out. I was very much pleased to find that the wound was not a dangerous one.

In the battle, every sensation was drowned in excitement. We had no time to think of being killed, except when standing to be shot at by cannon, without a chance to shoot back. This, to us, was the most trying part of the battle. When we had a chance to use our muskets, every thought and feeling was gone, except the one thought of shooting down the rebels as rapidly as possible. Our regiment certainly did its share of the work that day.

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market,

JANESVILLE, AUGUST 28, 1861.

The wheat market was dull to-day, and with fair receipts and unfavorable advices from the lake shore prices fell off 4@5c per bushel. Sales of about 3,000 bushels at 55@60 for milling and 45@50 for shipping, closing quiet at these figures. Receipt of coarse grains fair and market rather dull at quotations below.

A good proportion of the wheat now coming forward is from the new crop and, as we anticipated, the quality is generally rather common, the berry being small and a good deal of the wheat is badly shrunken, and will not weigh more than 56 pounds to the measured bushel. Taking the light yield and low prices together makes farmers complain considerably. The yield of wheat per acre through Rock county will not exceed twelve bushels.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—good to best milling spring 55@60; fair to good dry shipping 45@50; rejected 30@40.

CORN—15@18 per 60 lbs, shelled, and 14@16 per 72 lbs, ear.

OATS—quiet at 14@15.

RYE—quiet at 20@25c per 60 lbs.

BARLEY—dull—sales at 15@25 per 50 lbs., common to good quality.

TIMOTHY SEED—dull at 1,50@1,75 per 46 lbs.

POTATOES—new 25@30c per bushel.

BUTTER—plenty at 10@12½c fair to choice roll.

EGGS—plenty and dull at 6c per dozen.

WOOL—ranges at 15@27c for common to choice fair clean clips.

HIDES—Green, 2½@3; Dry, 5.7.

FLOUR—spring at retail 2.25 per 100 lbs.

POULTRY—dressed turkeys, 6@7c; chickens, 5@6

SHEEP PELTS—range from [illegible]

To Holders of Postage Stamps.

I AM instructed by the Post Office Department and am now prepared to exchange stamps of the new style for an equivalent amount of the old issue, during a period of six days from the date of this notice, and that the latter will not thereafter be received in payment of postage on letters sent from this office.

War Meeting Last Night.

This meeting was well attended last evening, and the commencement made of what we hope will prove an efficient and practical organization, which will concentrate the discursive efforts of the past season. The committee appointed to report a plan of organization "by which the resources of Rock county in men and means shall be made effective in the present crisis of our country," cousists of Messrs. H. N. Comstock, Hamilton Richardson, H. C. Tilton, S. C. Spaulding and Edward McKey. We learn that the committee held a meeting this morning and appointed Messrs. Richardson and Tilton to wait upon the Governor and procure such information, and make, if possible, such arrangements as will aid the object of the meeting.

Another good feature of the meeting was the appointment of a committee, consisting of R. B. Treat, W. M. Tallman, S. J. M. Putnam, S. C. Burnham and C. G. Williams, to aid Mr. Ruger in the formation of a company of sappers and miners, by providing for the board of the men before leaving for duty.

The meeting adjourned to meet again at the call of the committee on a plan of organisation.

LIEUT. RUGER'S COMPANY.—It will be seen by a notice from Lieut. Ruger that the time for which he will receive enlistments expires next Saturday; consequently those who desire to go with him must report themselves as soon as that time. The inducements for mechanics and laborers to engage in this service are such that a large company will probably be organized. See the notice of Lieut. R.

SENATOR DOUGLAS' LAST LETTER.—We publish this letter on our first page today. It is as timely and appropriate as when it was written, and its patriotic sentiments should be faithfully cherished.

JANESVILLE FIRE ZOUAVES.—In a few days this company will depart for Camp Randall, and be mustered into one of the regiments now being formed by the state. It is composed of excellent material, both men and officers. They have not yet enlisted quite all the men they need to make up the maximum number. This opportunity should not be suffered to pass, by those who wish to volunteer. We venture to say that no one can find in any company in the state better officers—those who will be more kind and considerate towards their men, while at the same time they are brave and capable. We hope there will be no hesitation in filling up the company. The pay is liberal; better perhaps than can be expected in these times of uncertain employment, in any business. The remuneration is constant, whether the soldier is sick or well. Clothing is furnished, and medical attendance without cost. At the end of the war there will be a bounty of $100 paid to each soldier. Taking all these things into consideration, the wages for single man will be equal to twenty dollars, and to a man of family, twenty-five dollars per month. The remuneration is liberal, while the inducements of a patriotic nature were never, in any war of which history gives any account, to be compared with those which now call our people to arms.

It is to be hoped that those who have concluded to join the Fire Zouaves of this city will all come forward without delay and signify their intentions. No one, we think, should hesitate on account of the possibility of the formation of other companies or regiments. All these contingencies are uncertain, while the chance is now open to unite with a good company. Volunteers cannot do better by delaying the matter, but should join at once.

"WAIT FOR THE BIG SHOW."—Next Saturday the "Big Show" advertised in our columns will exhibit in this city. It combines the attractions of a menagerie and circus, and both are to be seen for the price of either one if separately exhibited. As the work in the harvest field is about finished, there is likely to be a large crowd of people in town to see the show.

OFF FOR MADISON.—We understand that the Fire Zouaves of this city have orders to go to Madison on Tuesday morning next.

WASHINGTON ENGINE CO. NO. 3.—The regular monthly meeting of this company will be held at their house next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Let every member be on hand. J. T. WILCOX, Sec'y.

TRINITY CHURCH.—The annual renting of slips in Trinity Church will take place on Monday, Sept. 2d, at 10½ o'clock A. M., in the church. aug23d7d

LAPPIN'S HALL TO-NIGHT.—The concert of Miss Eichings will be given to-night at Lappin's Hall. Don't fail to attend.—You will be well repaid for the expenditure of your time and money. The entertainment will be diversified, and every one will be especially pleased with some part of it while the whole will give satisfaction.

DEATH OF WARREN M. GRAHAM.—We have, at last, the sad, but long-expected intelligence that young GRAHAM died yesterday, at Hagerstown, Md., from wounds received at the battle of Falling Waters.—For many weeks he has lingered between life and death, but the terible Minnie balls that pierced his body were too severe for even his iron constitution. He received every attention during his last illness; his mother and father were poth present, so all that love and skill could do have been tried in vain.—Wisconsin.

☞ Dr. S. P. Thornhill, of Hudson, formerly a resident of this city, has been commissioned as surgeon of the 8th regiment.

Resolutions of Water Witch Engine Company No. 2.

At a meeting of the above company, held at their hall, Tuesday evening, Aug. 27th, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted and ordered to be published:—

WHEREAS: Several of the members of Water Witch Engine Co. No. 2 have nobly responded to the call of their country and enlisted to fight her battles; and

WHEREAS, We the members of said company not only feel a deep interest in the cause they have espoused—but also in the individual welfare of those, who have so recently been connected with us, by the closest ties of friendship. And,

WHEREAS: Some of those who have thus severed their connection with us, have in the past, held offices of honor and trust, in our organization—offices, the duties of which they have always well and faithfully discharged. Therefore,

Resolved, That in the resignation of our late Foreman, C. P. KING, who has so long been one of our members, and who during his connection with us, has held various positions in our company from that of hose boy to foreman, filling each and all of them with honor to himself and credit to our organization—we lose the society of an excellent fireman and officer,—a kind-hearted and whole souled friend, and one whom we confidently believe, will in the battle-field, as 1st Lieut. of the Fire Zouaves of this city, do credit to himself, to his country, and the company of which he has so long been an honored member.

Resolved, That in the appointment of our late secretary, WM. H. SARGENT, as Orderly Sergeant of the Fire Zouaves, we recognize one which was eminently fit to have been made, and that while as secretary of our company he made a most accomplished officer, so we believe that as orderly sergeant of the Fire Zouaves, he will exhibit the same industry and energy, in the discharge of his official duties, and upon the field of danger, will act as only becomes the brave man, and patriotic soldier.

Resolved, That while we sincerely regret being compelled to part with our friends and companions, all of whom have endeared themselves to us by years of the closest intimacy and companionship, we are yet reconciled to their loss by the knowledge, that duty and patriotism have called them to the defence of "the constitution and the laws,"—that we have the most implicit faith in their courage and in the earnestness of purpose which has induced them to respond to that call; and we believe, not doubtingly but confidently, that when in front of the traitorous foe, upon the bloody-field, they will respond to the command of their officers with as much of alacrity as heretofore in battles with the fire, they have answered with their might to the call of King's, "NOW THEN WITH A WILL, MY BOYS, BRAKE HER DOWN." Believing this, we have only to say to our late friends and companions, "Go, and may the God of battles guard you in the hour of danger." Go, and may the flag of the free through your agency and such as you, again float over the freest and proudest republic on earth. Go! and after the work shall have been accomplished, living you will receive the plaudits of millions of patriots; dying you will be mourned by a grateful people, and under all circumstances, you will possess the glorious consolation of having discharged well that duty, which wins the soldier's wreath, or decks the soldier's grave.

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions, signed by the foreman and secretary, be published in the daily papers of this city.

H. RICHARDS, Ass't Foreman.
ADAM SKELLY, Secretary pro tem.

A BETTER PROSPECT.—Since a military board of examination has been established to examine the qualifications of all commissioned officers, 225 volunteer officers have resigned. Probably many of these officers feared the result of an examination, in exposing their want of qualifications. There is good reason to believe that those who are retained, or will be accepted hereafter, will be qualified for their responsible duties.

THE DIFFERENCE.—Every man at the North is free to choose whether he will go into this war or stay at home. Every man at the south is compelled to go into the ranks whether he will or no. No man at the North lives under any apprehension as to the safety of his home, his person his property there. No man at the south is exempt from a constant fear, that, sooner or later, the war will come, with all its horrors, to his very door.

The Northern soldier, if he succeeds maintains a great government; if he fails is a patriot dying at his post of duty. The southern soldier, if he succeeds, consigns a nation to anarchy: if he fails is a disgraced traitor. The one carries the flag in hand, the other a halter about his neck.

In a word the south fights with desperation, and because it is desperate, puts forth all its strength at the start. Hence, its victories must be won then if at all. The North only by degrees brings out its vast resources, and will have strength in reserve after the south is exhausted. Hence, its victories may be slow in coming, but they are inevitable at last, and will be permanent.

AN EXAMPLE TO BE IMITATED.—If our army and navy have presented some lamentable instances of disaffection and desertion of duty the heroism and patriotic devotion that are being daily displayed by the loyal members of both professious more than compensate for the pain which such spectacles have afforded. We give the following extract from a letter from a distinguished naval officer now in the blockading squadron, to his wife, as an example which animates both services.

"I want you to live in the most frugal manner possible, and if you can save money from your income by the strictest economy, loan it to the government, if it be but fifty dollars, or a hundred dollars, to assist in the smallest mite to maintain the Constitution of the United States and the supremacy of the law. The present conditon of our once happy country is enough to make 'the angels weep.'"

The feelings suggested by the above is one of the pleasures that men like the writer are in the public service and not only willing to fight but to economize for the Union.—New York Herald.

COTTON SHIPPED TO EUROPE FROM THIS PORT.—During the past week a large quantity of cotton has arrived at this port, from Providence, for the purpose of being shipped to Europe. This is owing no doubt to most of the factories in Lowell being closed and the price of cotton at present is from sixteen to eighteen cents per pound. The stores in Providence are said to be full.—N. Y. Eve. Post, 23d.

FEW DIE AND NONE RESIGN.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune says:—

No applications have been made under the new retiring law for the navy. Consequently, no board has been called together. It is not improbable that broad hints will be given to some old gentlemen, unless they move in this matter speedily.

Sappers and Miners, Attention!

You will report yourselves at Janesville on or before Saturday, August 31st. You will leave here September 2d, on the morning train for Chicago, and will there be mustered into the service of the United States and receive your equipments, going thence directly to St. Louis. Let no man fail to respond. Quarters are provided for you. EDWARD RUGER,
Acting Lieut. Eng'r Reg't of the West.

MEN AND PATRIOTS!

Pause and reflect. Your country needs your service! Will you respond? Then enlist with the Sappers and Miners, and join our own brave soldiers of the west under the gallant Fremont.

Great inducements are offered. It is the highest and best branch of the service and the best pay. Be true sons of the republic and come forward and enlist. Mechanics enlist! Men not mechanics enlist! I will receive all strong men and true, that come. Let every man that readeth come. For further particulars enquire of the undersigned, office in county building with clerk of the board, or at first door south of Lawrence & Atwood's store. EDWARD RUGER,
Janesville, August 27th, 1861. Acting Lieut.

INDISPENSABLE.—If you want healthy, light bread, biscuit and pastry of all kinds, use only D. B. De Land & Co.'s Chemical Saleratus. It is truly the "housewife's favorite," and is indispensable in producing the above results. You can get it of all respectable dealers everywhere.

ONE WAY TO CIRCULATE REBEL SHEETS.—The New York News being hard up for subscribers, on account of its rabid secession proclivities, is being distributed gratuitously to all who will take it. Here is one the secrets, "confidential" circulars;

CONFIDENTIAL.

Mr.— Sir:—I understand you to be an influential man of—county. I take the liberty of sending you our paper, the Daily News, for one month. The cost is defrayed by a society, whose object is to enlist the talent of the state in favor of peace measures. Should you think proper to become a subsciber after that date, please signify the same.

HOW A MAN FEELS WHEN HE IS WOUNDED, AND HOW IT GOES TO BE SHOT AT.—We take the following from a letter written by one of the gallant Iowa volunteers, who fought in the battle near Springfield, Missouri:

I was standing, or rather kneeling, behind a little bush, reloading my musket, just before the rebels engaged in this close work retreated. Suddenly I felt a sharp pain in the shoulder, and fell to the ground. Jumping up, one of our boys asked me if I was hurt. I replied I thought not, drew up my musket to fire, when he said: "Yes, you are shot right through the shoulder." I think it was this remark, more than the wound, which caused the field, all at once, to commence whirling around me in a very strange manner. I started to leave it, with a half ounce musket ball in my shoulder, and once or twice fell down with dizziness; but in a short time recovered sufficiently to be able to walk back to Springfield, nine miles, where the ball was taken out. I was very much pleased to find that the wound was not a dangerous one.

In the battle, every sensation was drowned in excitement. We had no time to think of being killed, except when standing to be shot at by cannon, without a chance to shoot back. This, to us, was the most trying part of the battle. When we had a chance to use our muskets, every thought and feeling was gone, except the one thought of shooting down the rebels as rapidly as possible. Our regiment certainly did its share of the work that day.

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

JANESVILLE, August 28, 1861.

The wheat market was dull to-day, and with fair receipts and unfavorable advices from the lake shore prices fell off 4@5c per bushel. Sales of about 3,000 bushels at 55@60 for milling and 45@50 for shipping, closing quiet at those figures. Receipts of coarse grains fair and market rather dull at quotations below.

A good proportion of the wheat now coming forward is from the new crop and, as we anticipated, the quality is generally rather common, the berry being small and a good deal of the wheat is badly shrunken, and will not weigh more than 56 pounds to the measured bushel. Taking the light yield and low prices together makes farmers complain considerably. The yield of wheat per acre through Rock county will not exceed twelve bushels.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—good to best milling spring 55a60; fair to good dry shipping 45a50; rejected 20a40.

CORN—15a18 per 60 lbs. shelled, and 14a16c per 72 lbs. ear.

OATS—quiet at 14a15.

RYE—quiet at 20a25c per 50 lbs.

BARLEY—dull sale at 15a25c per 50 lbs., common to good quality.

TIMOTHY SEED—dull at 1,40a1,75 per 46 lbs.

POTATOES—new 25a35c per bushel.

BUTTER—plenty at 10a12½c fair to choice roll.

EGGS—plenty and dull at 6c per dozen.

WOOL—ranges at 15a27c for common to choice fair clean clips.

HIDES—Green, 2½a3; Dry, 5a7.

FLOUR—spring at retail 2,25, per 100 lbs.

POULTRY—dressed turkeys, 6½a7; chickens, 5a6

SHEEP PELTS—range from 25c@60 each.

To Holders of Postage Stamps.

I AM instructed by the Post Office Department and am now prepared to exchange stamps of the new style for an equivalent amount of the old issue, during a period of six days from the date of this notice, and that the latter will not thereafter be received in payment of postage on letters sent from this office.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as two experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,000,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Douglas' Last Letter.

A friend of Senator Douglas furnished the National Intelligencer for publication a copy of the following letter from him on the state of the country:

CHICAGO, May 10, 1861.

MY DEAR SIR:—Being deprived of the use of my arms for the present by a severe attack of rheumatism, I am compelled to avail myself of the services of an amanuensis in reply to your two letters.

It seems that some of my friends are unable to comprehend the difference between arguments used in favor of an equitable compromise, with the hope of averting the horrors of war, and those urged in support of the government and flag of our country, when war is being waged against the United States with the avowed purpose of producing a permanent disruption of the Union and a total destruction of its government.

All hope of compromise with the cotton states was abandoned when they assumed the position that the separation of the Union was complete and final, and that they would never consent to a reconstruction in any contingency—not even if we would furnish them with a blank sheet of paper and permit them to inscribe their own terms.

Still the hope was cherished that reasonable and satisfactory terms of adjustment could be agreed upon with Tennessee, North Carolina, and the border states, and that whatever terms would prove satisfactory to these loyal states would create a Union party in the cotton states, which would be powerful enough at the ballot box to destroy the revolutionary government, and bring those states back into the Union by the voice of their own people. This hope was cherished by Union men north and south, and was never abandoned until actual war was levied at Charleston and the authoritative announcement made by the revolutionary government at Montgomery, that the secession flag should be planted upon the walls of the capitol at Washington, and a proclamation issued inviting the pirates of the world to prey upon the commerce of the United States.

These startling facts, taken in connection with the boastful announcement that the ravages of war and carnage should be quickly transferred from the cotton fields of the south to the wheat fields and corn fields of the north, furnish conclusive evidence that it was the fixed purpose of the secessionists utterly to destroy the government of our fathers and obliterate the United States from the map of the world.

In view of this state of facts there was but one path of duty left to patriotic men. It was not a party question, nor a question involving partizan policy; it was a question of government or no government; country or no country; and hence it became the imperative duty of every Union man, every friend of constitutional liberty, to rally to the support of our common country, its government and flag, as the only means of checking the progress of revolution and of preserving the Union of states.

I am unable to answer your questions in respect to the policy of Mr. Lincoln and his cabinet. I am not in their confidence, as you and the whole country ought to be aware. I am neither the supporter of the partisan policy nor the apologist for the errors of the administration. My previous relations to them remain unchanged; but I trust the time will never come when I shall be unwilling to make any needful sacrifice of personal feeling and party policy for the honor and integrity of my country.

I know of no mode by which a loyal citizen may so well demonstrate his devotion to his country as by sustaining the flag, the constitution, and the Union, under all circumstances, and under every administration, (regardless of party polities,) against all assailants, at home and abroad. The course of Clay and Webster towards the administration of Jackson, in the days of nullification, presents a noble and worthy example for all true patriots. At the very moment when that fearful crisis was precipitated upon the country, partizan strife between whigs and democrats was quite as bitter and relentless as now between democrats and republicans.

The gulf which separated party leaders in those days was quite as broad and deep as that which now separates the democracy from the republicans. But the moment an enemy rose in our midst, plotting the dismemberment of the Union and the destruction of the government, the voice of partisan strife was hushed in patriotic silence. One of the brightest chapters in the history of our country will record the fact that during this eventful period the great leaders of the opposition, sinking the partizan in the patriot, rushed to the support of the government, and became its ablest and bravest defenders against all assailants until the conspiracy was crushed and abandoned, when they resumed their former postions as party leaders upon political issues.

These acts of patriotic devotion have never been deemed evidences of infidelity or political treachery on the part of Clay and Webster, to the principles and organization of the old whig party. Nor have I any apprehension that the firm and unanimous support which the democratic leaders and masses are now giving to the constitution and the Union will be deemed evidences of infidelity to democratic principles, or a want of loyalty to the organization and creed of the democratic party. If we hope to regain and perpetuate the ascendancy of our party, we should never forget that a man can not be a true democrat unless he is a loyal patriot.

With the sincere hope that these my consciencious convictions may coincide with those of my friends,

I am, very truly, yours,
S. A. DOUGLAS.

To Virgil Hicox, Esq., Chairman State Democratic Committee.

THE "HORRORS OF THE MIDDLE PASSAGE."—At the examination of the case of the Salver Brutus yesterday, Mr. Milo R. Robbins, who was one of the crew who shipped to go on a whaling voyage, testified that the number of slaves that were intended to be placed on board the "Brutus" was probably about 700—that upwards of 50 of the slaves were drowned in being conveyed from the shore to the ship, and that over 100 were suffocated on the passage to Cuba, so that out of the 700 slaves they landed somewhere in the vicinity of 500—men, women and children.—Boston Traveler.

TESTIMONIAL.

To Whom it May Concern:

I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I became blind an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr. Folsom, as a skillful oculist, I was induced to consult him, though with very little hopes of relief. The doctor proposed an operation, to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of sight to one eye. Afterwards performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS. VAUGHN.

Republican State Convention.

A Republican State Convention will be held at the Capital, in the city of Madison, at 12 o'clock M., on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of September next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for state officers.

Each assembly district, under the new apportionment, will be entitled to two delegates in the convention.

The committee recommend that the primary meetings for the selection of delegates be held on or before the 14th day of September, and that the district committees issue early calls for such meetings, that the people may be thoroughly notified, and choose delegates who fairly reflect their wishes.

HORACE RUBLEE,
Chairman State Republican Central Com.
Madison, August 12, 1861.

County Fair.

The committee of citizens who have this fair in charge are actively engaged in making the preparations for it. This committee was appointed at a meeting of the citizens of the county, and it is composed of men whose interest in the agriculture of the county will prompt them to every effort to make the fair successful, and whose pecuniary responsibility and well known character are full guarantees for the redemption of the pledge to promptly pay all the premiums awarded.

We hope the people of Rock county will take hold of this matter energetically. The state fair has been postponed, and surely a hearty co-operation in the county fair will be a relief from the absorbing interest and anxiety inspired by the pending war. These fairs heretofore have been emphatically the peoples' gathering. Neighbors and friends have met for a holiday relaxation, and aside from the immediate benefits of an annual exhibition of the products and industry of the county, the social intercourse always characterising them has been a compensation for the labor and expense attending them. Let then the people of Rock county come together again as in the olden time, and while no duty to an imperiled country is neglected, devote a little time to home interests and home enjoyment.

TRAITORS AT CHICAGO.—On Thursday evening the mayor of Chicago addressed a communication to the common council notifying them that there were sympathisers with the rebels in that city, and spies who were giving information to the enemy, and proposing the passage of an ordinance concerning disloyal citizens. One was immediately adopted making it the duty of the Union Defense Committee to request all persons to leave the city who refuse to take an oath of allegiance to the government; upon refusal the committee is to publish the names of such persons in the daily papers, and report them to the council. Only two councilmen voted against it. The place to begin with in this business was with those two aldermen.

GOOD, IF TRUE.—The Madison Patriot of last evening says:—"The chief rumor about the capitol to-day is that Col. O'Connor of the 2d regiment, has resigned, and Lieut. Col. Harris, late of the 1st, is appointed Colonel. Colonel Harris makes the third officer who has been commissioned commander of the 2d, and as he is one of the best qualified officers in the service, we think his appointment will hold, to the detriment of the enemy and the satisfaction of his brave men."

We trust this rumor is true. Such a change would be a hopeful indication of an improvement that we fear is greatly needed in the 2d regiment.

STATE ITEMS.—The republicans of Waukesha have nominated John Hodgson, of Pewaukee, for senator, to fill the vacancy from that district.

Morgan L. Martin, of Green Bay, has been appointed additional paymaster in the United States army.

A. R. Bushnell has filed his resignation as district attorney of Grant county, and Joseph T. Mills has been appointed his successor.

The Walworth County Badgers, Capt. F. G. Harrington, report 60 men ready, and have been ordered to camp Sept. 1.

J. W. Jefferson, who has been for some years the popular proprietor of the American House, Madison, has received the appointment of Major of the 8th regiment.

The Dodge Co. Volunteers, Juneau, report 85 men, and are authorized to go to quarters after Sept. 1st.

Hon. Luther Hanchett is in Madison.

WESTERN TROOPS.—Dr. Lewis, the surgeon of the 2d regiment, who has just returned from Richmond, where he was for some time a prisoner after the battle of Bull Run, says the rebels declare they can whip the troops from the eastern states with ease, but they think the north-western men are rough customers to encounter. They complain that the western regiments took aim, and that their fire was deadly in the extreme. The proportion of killed to the number hit by bullets was much greater among the rebels than on our side.

GOOD ADVICE.—The entire Catholic clergy of Chicago, by concerted action, have advised all unemployed men in their congregations to enlist in General Fremont's army.

A Friend to America in England.

THE LONDON DAILY NEWS REBUKES THE MALIGNITY OF THE LONDON TIMES.

The London Daily News of the 6th inst., speaks the best voice of England upon the disaster of the Union at Stone Bridge in such fraternal fashion, that we quite forgot there has been any past jealousy in our mutual expressions—any malignity of European journals which hate the republic for freedom's sake—any London Times. The News says:

During the agony of our Indian rebellion, when the fate of an empire trembled in the balance, and the proud heart of England trembled with anguish, the sympathy of Europe, in the presence of a calamity in which the whole of Christendom seemed to partake, was all but universally expressed. Ancient enmities, foreign jealousies, held their peace for awhile, and "natural enemies" vied with the nearest and dearest friends in generous grief and hope. Among foes and aliens, if a tone of sneering pity or of contemptuous regret jarred upon the public ear, it was instantly covered with shame and reprobation by nobler voices. Over the narrow seas a gallant people watched our varying fortunes with that fraternal interest which brave men feel in the actions of the brave; faint and few, indeed, were the mutterings of unmanly and malignant exultation at the tragic vicissitudes of a mortal struggle which history shudders to recall.

But among our kinsmen beyond the Atlantic it was not mere interest that was felt for England at that terrible moment, or common human sympathy; it is but the simple truth to say, that the heroes and the victims of Lucknow and Cawnpoor were honored and lamented by the people of the United States, and the trials and exploits of English courage and endurance treasured up as the immortal part of an invisible inheritance of blood, language and renown. And yet there were voices of hate, envy and savage joy to break the resolute stillness of the national sorrow, and to insult the sympathies of christian Europe.—Abroad, and even at home, there were "Sepoy" journals, which recounted with undisguised satisfaction the horrors of the mutiny, and frantically foretold the end of British rule in India. These "Sepoy" journals, however, had one redeeming merit—the frankness of their ferocious taunts and sinister predictions were appalling; but it was more tolerable than insult and outrage disguised in protesting pity, or simulating regretful amazement and compassion.

When the day of trial and trouble comes again for England, we trust it may not be remembered that the most powerful, and therefore the most responsible, English journals celebrated the issue of the first great battle between the army of the United States and the army of the southern rebels as a loss of all, "even of military honor," to citizen volunteers who had fought for nine hours of a summer's day against overwhelming odds, for a cause as sacred as law and order, as precious as national liberty and unity.

Our contemporary would fain, it should seem, endeavor to reduce the conflict to the dimensions of a border raid or a barbarous brawl. But, as this is impossible, it degrades a war from which anarchy and slavery, or freedom purified and ordered anew for higher purposes, must spring to the proportions of "a senseless and bloody strife." This is not only to caricature living facts; it is to give the lie history. Civil war it was that made the ancestors of the men who fought at Bull Run great and free; though, no doubt, there were disinterested persons in those days who condemned the "senseless and bloody strife" by which our forefathers dearly purchased at the cost of their lives all that their descendants now enjoy.

Civil war, too, though no doubt, it was sometimes "a senseless and bloody strife," has done something for the strength and grandeur, if not for the freedom of France. Had England displayed that "humility and contentment which facilitate peace" in the days of the Stuarts, or France in the face of the coalition of old monarchies, we know not if France would be greater or England freer, but assuredly there would be little enough upon which to congratulate the survivors of either revolution.

The cynical selfishness with which the public opinion of England is so often credited by foreigners has never found a more exalted expression than in these reckless utterances. Nor are these opinions, even in their own sense, discerning or acute. It was to be expected that a defeat of the federal army would, in the eyes of the adroit and abject believers in the sacredness of success, lend to the cause of the south a legitamacy which no reasoning could ever gain for it. Yet already it is clear that the results of the action of the 21st were not so disastrous to the federal army as to forbid altogether a southern advance this year.

The victory of the southern army was due no doubt to superior skill in its leaders, but the choice of a defense position and the arrival of timely re-enforcements must be taken into account on the same side; and the "panic" that decided the issue of the fight is an incident not unparallelled in the military annals of European powers. The losses both in men and material of the federalist force are not so considerable as was at first reported. On the other hand, the scope of the war is infinitely enlarged. And the protraction of the contest is all in favor of those who have the largest reserves of men and means. A defeat of the north shuts the door to compromise, or to acquiescence in any terms the south can offer. The Union is bound to conquer now. The spirit of New England and the northwest will rise to the occasion; and we of the old race, tried and strengthened by many reverses, shall not be surprised if our kinsmen never rest until they have turned defeat into victory. It may be that the triumph of the cause of freedom must date from a defeat. An easy war is often content to subside into an inglorious peace.

THE SOUTHERN PRESS ON MCDOWELL'S REPORT.—The Augusta (Ga). Chronicle and Sentinel of the 18th of August, has a leader on McDowell's report, from which we quote:

McDowell makes no display in his report, but it is a plain detail of his movements, and it shows that he arranged and fought the battle as well as any of Lincoln's generals, with their troops, could have done, not excepting Gen. Scott. He managed it admirably in every respect, and was very nearly successful. * * The columns of Hunter and Heintzleman passed up the Run, crossed at Sudley's Ford, and attempted to turn our left, which was the great feature of the plan. Hunter did cross, did attack as ordered, and did force our men down the Run, where they had to receive the cross fire of Tyler's column, and nothing but the protection of heaven, the genius of Beauregard (who detected Hunter's movement by the clouds of dust,) and the unequaled heroic courage and great endurance of our men; prevented our left being turned, and perhaps the seizure by Hunter of the Manassas railroad at Gainesville.

APPOINTED JUDGE.—Fletcher M. Haight, Esq., formerly of Rochester, but of late years a resident of California, has been appointed judge of the United States district court for the southern district of California.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.

The pickets of Beauregard's army are nearer Arlington Heights than ever before; but this fact, it is believed indicates no attack.

Amos Kendall and family have abandoned their home near this city and removed to Trenton, New Jersey.

It is reported that the English and French fleets on our coast are intended for service at Vera Cruz, intervention in Mexican affairs being the probable design of these governments.

Richard Wallach, who was yesterday appointed Mayor of this city in place of Barrett, is a strong Unionist, and will use all his powers in support of the government.

Capt. Keys, of the District of Columbia militia, was arrested this morning at the chain bridge, and is now in jail.

There was an alarm occasioned at the chain bridge over the Potomac last night, by a report that the enemy was advancing. No enemy appeared.

Special to Commercial.—Private advices from Kentucky represent that state as being on the verge of civil war. The Union men are ready for whatever issue secessionists may force upon them.

Washington is quiet to-day.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.

Samuel J. Anderson, a man well known among sporting men, was arrested this morning on suspicion of being in correspondence with the rebels. Anderson was lately deputy sheriff, and was once in the custom house, and for some time acted as a clerk in the house of representatives in Washington. It is said that most of his appointments were obtained through the influence of A. H. Stevens, vice president of the rebel government, and that he has constantly been in correspondence with him since the commencement of the southern rebellion.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.

John Cochrane's regiment and the 18th Massachusetts regiment left to day for Washington.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 27.

Gen. Pope has information from East Missouri, that Martin Green instead of threatening to attack Kirksville and Athens, as heretofore reported, is rapidly retreating towards Missouri river. General Hurlbut is pursuing him from Kirksville and Col. Moore from Athens. Green's force is estimated at 1,200, and is supposed to be now in the lower part of Monroe county moving south, and will probably attempt to cross the river in Colloway or Boone counties. This will rid northeast Missouri of his presence and restore quiet in that portion of the state.

BOSTON, Aug. 27.

British brig Forward arrived here to-day from Cienfuegus, and reports that she saw, off Cape Ontaria, on the 4th, the privateer Sumter lying off and on.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.

The navy department is satisfied with the abundant proofs which Com. Porter has presented in refutation of the charge against his loyalty. His own affidavit shows the alleged secession letter to his son to be a forgery.

The secretary of the treasury has just issued a circular of instruction to collectors and other officers of customs, calling their attention to the act of congress to further provide for the collection of duties on imports and for other purposes, approved the 13th of July last, and the proclamation of the President of the 16th of August.

COLUMBUS, Aug. 27.

The democratic state convention nominated John R. Marshal of Brown county for lieutenant governor.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 27.

Gov. Moore, in the New Orleans Picayune, calls on each family to contribute blankets for the soldiers.

The Savannah Republican says the confederate authorities would within a week complete the defenses so that no federal fleet can enter a harbor, inlet, or land troops on the coast of Georgia.

The Charleston Courier says an iron-clad steamer, named the Randolph, of 155 tons, has been purchased at Savannah for the coast of South Carolina. She makes from thirteen to sixteen knots per hour.

The Little Rock True Democrat, of the 22d, learns that the Missouri state troops under command of Price, left Springfield for Camp Walker on the 16th. McCulloch and his force had gone to Camp Scott.

A second battalion of cavalry has been organized at Knoxville, Tenn.

The Fort Smith Times says an abundance of military stores are being conveyed to McCulloch's army in Missouri.

The Memphis Appeal's Richmond correspondent says there is much sickness in the confederate troops in the neighborhood of Manassas. The water is full of Virginia red-weed, and ice is extremely scarce at ten cents per pound.

Special despatch to the Chicago Times.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27—11 P. M.

Fighting is going on this evening near Bailey's and Ball's cross-roads. It is supposed to be nothing more than a skirmish of outposts.

The passes granted heretofore to newspaper reporters to cross the Potomac were revoked to-day.

Three emissaries from Governor Magoffin, of Kentucky, have arrived, and have had an interview with the President. They complain that Mr. Lincoln has violated the neutrality of their state. Their errand will be fruitless.

Captain James Steel, of the Sturgis Rifles, Chicago, has gone to Fortress Monroe, in command of the escort of the mutineers.

BOSTON, Aug. 27.

Hon. Joseph Holt, of Kentucky, made a Union speech in this city. In the course of his remarks he said he nowhere heard the word "compromise," which was now only uttered by traitors. So long as rebels had arms in their hands there was nothing to compromise. He concluded by saying that it was in vain to toil at the pumps while men were kept on board boring holes in the bottom of the ship.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 27.

Washington King, ex-mayor of the city, died very suddenly this afternoon.

Gen. Lyon's body has been embalmed, and was this evening taken to the headqurters of Gen. Fremont. To-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock it will be escorted with full military honors to the cars. Preparations are being made to render to the illustrious dead the honors that will express the respect in which he was held by the Union men of St. Louis. The body will be taken charge of by the Adams Express Co. and taken to his friends, by way of Columbus and Pittsburgh. At a late hour the train from Jefferson had not arrived.

The city is very quiet. The recent order of the provost marshal is having an excellent effect.

At Warrensburg, Johnson county, Mo., on Saturday, 200 rebels, who just returned from McCulloch's forces, broke into the post office, destroyed the mails, opened and destroyed letters to Union men, broke into many of their houses, smashed furniture, wantonly destroyed much property, and drove out families. Eleven hundred of our cavalry, en route for Lexington, will pass through Warrensburg and punish the rebels.

IRONTON, Mo., Aug. 27.

Five thousand men left this point this morning. I cannot give you their destination. They will give a good account of themselves. Gen. Prentiss commands in person. A sufficient force is left to guard the place.

Scouts just in report the enemy 1,500 stong on Cedar creek, also in considerable force on Castor creek, with but few at Greenville. They report their own strength in this section of the state to be 8,000. They subsist on corn meal and fresh beef, are nearly destitute of clothing, and poorly armed.

A deserter from New Madrid says the forces under Pillow, except, perhaps, the Tennessee and Alabama troops, are much demoralized and are mainly held together by the belief that St. Louis will soon fall into their hands. The force at New Madrid under Pillow is about 20,000; at Benton, Scott county, under Jeff Thompson, 8,000; and at Charleston, under Hunter, 800. Our informant also says that two masked batteries, not before heard of, are on the Missouri bank of the Mississippi river, one five miles above New Madrid, and the other about the same distance below. Another masked battery is to be constructed at Dog Tooth Island, about eighteen miles above Cairo, where the river is narrow and deep.

Lead, liquor and many other things were reaching New Madrid in large quantities via Paducah and Columbus, Ky.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

CAIRO, Aug. 27.

There were some symptoms of a fight at Bird's Point to-day. Five scouts sent out from Burrill's White county cavalry encountered a body of rebel cavalry, 60 strong, on Rush Ridge Road, five miles below. The scouts were fired at, killing one horse.—Two made their escape into camp directly; two left their horses and through cornfields made their way here; and one, named Bollen, of White county, is supposed to have been made prisoner. An expedition went out about one o'clock—a detachment of infantry and a squad of cavalry—in hopes of meeting with the rebels. They have returned and report seeing them; but the rebels cut for the woods.

Parties from the Cape by railroad to-day report everything quiet. The rebels are no nearer than Benton. Their pickets, however, are marauding about within five miles.

Scouts report Pillow at Sykeston. Most of his troops having left Madrid, rumor has it that a large body of his command is within six hours march of Bird's Point.

The uniforms of the first brigade are mostly distributed. They look splendid.

The gun boats Tyler and Lexington have gone up the Mississippi and will be back to-morrow.

The Emma Duncan from Cincinnati to St. Louis, reports everything quiet at Paducah.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.

A systematic and strenuous effort is being made by the money interests of Boston and New York to effect a change in the personnel and policy of the cabinet, by the removal of Messrs. Seward, Cameron and Welles. Representing the banks of the two cities, which have just taken the government loan, they claim that they have a right to be heard, and their arrival here creates some sensation. The Boston committee is J. Wiley Edmunds, John C. Gray and William T. Andrews. They have been here two days, and have made a change in the war and navy departments the sole object of their mission. The New York committee have now arrived, and want Mr. Seward removed as well as Cameron and Welles.—They represent the Metropolitan, American Exchange, Commercial, National and Exchange banks, on behalf of the city banks. Inasmuch as the Boston committee has met no encouragement, it is presumed the New York committee will have no better success; or that the two combined will be able to shake Mr. Lincoln's determination to keep the constitutional advisers whom he has chosen.

There is a great increase in the number of patent applications from England and France.

The precise number of traitors or suspected persons whom the Potter committee have found in the service of the government is 188. Of these the state department has 31, treasury department 67, war department 34, attorney general's 16, etc.

Thirty Alexandrians, unwilling to take the oath of allegiance, cannot get passes home, and are obliged to stay here.

Sir John Murray of England has been appointed an assistant adjutant general in our army.

It is reported on good authority that the enemy are advancing in force. They have occupied Bailey's Cross Roads, and taken an inchoate intrenchment of ours this side of there.

Two of our guns were spiked at Arlington the other night.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.

According to the confession of Anderson, arrested here yesterday, he has for months past contributed editorial articles for the News, Day Book and Journal of Commerce. An intercepted letter from Washington advised him to go south via Kentucky, as a passport could not be obtained from the government. He states that Ben Wood and Isaiah Rynders have communicated with the south as extensively as he has done. Anderson's correspondence gives a great deal of important political information, besides implicating parties well known in this state.

A dispatch says the ship Simonds, a British vessel owned in St. Johns, N. B., has been lying in the port of Quebec some three weeks flying the secession flag.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.

Tribune's Correspondence.—Mr. Adams, minister to England, writes that in the British mind the independence of the rebels is fully admitted as a military and political necessity; that their acknowledgement by England is only a question of time and prudent courtesy; that while Great Britain is impatient to get cotton from the south in exchange for manufactured goods, she is anxious not to lose the northern markets, and is unwilling to part with her hope of breaking down the Morrill tariff by the same means with which she chained the north with the Walker tariff, and that two or three more successes like that of Bull's Run would entitle the slaveocracy to immediate recognition.

The steamer Jamestown (by rebel baptism Patrick Henry,) is said to have run the blockade at Fort Monroe and gone out to sea on the night of the 18th. She is fast and must prove dangerous.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

FORTRESS MONROE, Aug. 27.

A flag of truce came from Norfolk to-day to enquire after that which came yesterday and was detained until afternoon to-day. This flag of truce brought Capt. Hussey and crew of the ship O. B. Thompson of Brunswick, Me., captured May 19th off Savannah bar, and taken into Beaufort, N. C., by the privateer Lady Davis.

Two ladies from Norfolk say that the confederates have lately assembled in large force near Sewall's Point, anticipating an attack from Old Point.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 28.

The remains of Gen. Lyon will be escorted with proper ceremonies at 1 o'clock from Gen. Fremont's headquarters to the Ohio & Mississippi R. R. depot, where they will be delivered to Adams' Express Co. to be conveyed east by the 3 o'clock train. The escort to accompany the body east consists of Maj. H. A. Conant, of Gen. Lyon's staff; Captains Plummer and Edgar, U. S. A.; Lieut. Clark, and eight privates of Col. McNiel's regiment U. S. reserve corps.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.

Special to Post.—The enemy's forces are concentrated in large numbers a short distance from the Chain Bridge on the Virginia side of the Potomac, between the Chain Bridge and Leesburg.

The Baltimore Sun of this morning, states that no journal in Baltimore has been requested to withhold the publication of army news.

The recent alteration in the tariff, prevents further exportation (!) of Belgian cloth, known as shoddy.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.

The brig, Grace Worthington, Capt. Frethy, at Belize, Honduras, August 8th, reports that on her passage out, was boarded by a full rigged brig, calling herself a privateer, and belonging to the southern confederacy. After examining her papers, the Grace Worthington was allowed to proceed.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.

The Herald says—Notwithstanding the apparent quietness on the part of United States authorities in this city in relation to the suppression of secession newspapers, it is not true that they are not doing anything in the matter. This morning every mail and express train which leaves this city, carries with it a detective officer, whose duty it is to search all packages and superintend baggage, with the view to ascertain if there are any secession papers in the train, and if so to sieze them; and if any such journals should be found in the possession of any person to bring him to this city, to be properly cared for. Also, as soon as the district attorney, Mr. Delafield Smith, returns to the city, it is said measures will be taken to suppress the publishing of papers which administer aid and comfort to rebels.

The British war steamer Rinaldo is below.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 28.

The body of Sergeant Warren M. Graham, of the 1st Wisconsin regiment, who died from wounds received at the battle of Falling Waters, is on its way here. The chamber of commerce have just offered to defray the expenses of the funeral. The many noble and generous acts of the members of the chamber of commerce of this city entitles them to the esteem and thanks of the whole community.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.

Wheat receipts 71,102 bushels. Market rather more active, but without important change in prices. Sales 60,000 bushels—1,05a1,06 Mil club, 1,08 amber Iowa.

COL. TYLER'S COMMAND.—The report comes from Cincinnati that Col. Tyler's regiment—the 7th Ohio—has had an engagement with Floyd's rebel army, and been badly beaten. The enemy are said to have surrounded them, and if the report is true, (it being as yet unconfirmed,) the particulars will show that the position was carried only after a bloody and desperate fight. At last accounts Col. Tyler was well entrenched at Cross Lanes, 24 miles northeast Gauley Bridge, upon a hill which commands the turnpike leading to Gauley, Summerville, (a few miles distant,) and Lewisburg, in Greenbrier county. His position was such that, although constantly threatened, it was said he could hold it against several times his number. Upon the other side of Summerville, and near it, was the 23d Ohio, Col. Scammon; and still further north, at Sutton, the 13th Ohio, Col. Smith; these three regiments forming the southern division of the line between Gauley Bridge and Clarksburg.

Of all these, however, the position at Cross Lanes was the strongest and most important. The hill was peculiarly favorable to the service of artillery, of which Tyler had several pieces; and earthworks for his infantry rendered the place more easy to defend. Late accounts by mail from Cross Lanes stated the constant danger of attack, and announced that an army of 7,000 men was then on the way from Huttonsville, commanded (it was supposed,) by General Lee himself. Gov. Wise's force was also uncomfortably near, and had captured some of our men, including Capt. Sprague. It is not improbable, therefore, that this overwhelming force may have considered the stronghold at Cross Lanes worth the several hundred lives which they must have lost in taking it. In their hands it breaks the connection between Generals Cox and Rosecrans, and leaves the former in a predicament that may well excite our alarm for his safety.—Chicago Tribune.

DISCUSS NOT POLITICS AT ALL.—When Judge Douglas in his last great speech in Chicago on May 1st enjoined the American people to "cease discussing party issues, make no allusions to old party tests, have no criminations and recriminations, indulge in no taunts against the other, as to who has been the cause of these troubles," he, no doubt wished to prevent the occurrence of just such events as transpired at Braggsville on Saturday last. A couple of worthy citizens of that place having heard that Washington had been bombarded and taken by the rebels, concluded that they would make a pilgrimage to this city, and ascertain the truth of the rumor. One was a staunch Democrat and the other a firm Republican. Mr. Democrat had a buggy and harness, and Mr. Republican was possessed of a horse. It was mutually agreed that they should "hitch teams" and make the journey. After a few miles had been made they both agreed that if Washington had been taken it was a very bad thing.—"Yes," said Mr. Democrat, "but you Republicans are to blame for it. You have got up all this difficulty." To this our Republican, of course, demurred, and charged the whole thing home on the Democaats, as being alone responsible. Then of course there arose "criminations and re-criminations, taunts indulged one against the other," &c., &c., and the consequences that followed might have been suspected.

Mr. Republican concluded that his horse couldn't draw any such man as Mr. Democrat, so he alighted from his buggy, unharnessed his horse and came to Portage on horse back, leaving his Democra associate dividing his time between damming the Republican party, wondering if Washington had been taken, and speculating as how to get his buggy back home again.—Portage City Register.

Stand by the government and the government will stand by you.

What sane man would aid or countenance a parcel of incendiaries who are seeking to set fire to and burn down his own house, and that, too, while sleeping in the upper story?

This is just what the opponents of the government in the present war are doing. They are giving countenance to the men who are seeking to destroy the national structure in which they have found security and protection all their lives, and by the salvation of which they alone can hope for security and protection in the future.—Chicago Journal.

Gerritt Smith on the War.

Gerritt Smith has addressed a scathing letter to the New York state democratic committee to who refused accept the offer of the republicans to unite with them in political action. A great deal of it is appropriate to other latitudes besides New York. We make an extract or two:

"You profess to be in favor of "the vigorous prosecution of the war." Of course you do. For the people are; and to get influence with them you must make them believe that you are. But there is only one way for you to be what you profess to be at this point. It is to help the government carry on the war. But you point to the "hundreds of thousands of democrats in the army to prove that you are helping the government carry it on. In vain! for this only proved that they are helping, not that you are. All honor to these "hundreds of thousands!" and all dishonor to you! Deeply do you wrong them, insultingly do you degrade them by identifying yourselves with them. In this dark hour of our country are they, like you, against its government?—No, they are fighting for it. Or do they, like you, refuse to co-operate with republicans for the salvation of the country? No—God bless them! They rise far above such meanness and wickedness, and stand shoulder with republicans. I can not affirm that you will not succeed in bringing over the democratic masses to your guilty ground. But I can affirm that you do not represent them now.

You do not fail to extol the constitution. Of course not. Messrs. Breckinridge, May, Burnett, Vallandigham do not. For the politician not to extol it when his purpose is to gain something from Americans, would betray as great a lack of cunning as would the omission of the hypocrite to commend the bible when he would gain something from christians. But, gentlemen, I trust an indignant public will teach you that the present is not the proper time for turning men's minds from the country to the constitution—from their urgent duties amidst the appalling necessities of the one to their composed study of the requirements and their prolonged admiration of the merits of the other. It is but a poor sort of philanthropy, which distresses itself over the clothes that the drowning man is carrying with him to the bottom. Very unseasonable is the reading of the "Rules of the Hotel" to its inmates, when the hotel is on fire. But no more so than to remind Americans of the rules of the national constitution, when the rebels are at their throats.

* * * * * *

I hope, gentlemen, that you are not traitors. But if you are not, then you are greatly to be pitied for so strongly seeming to be what you are not. If you are not more concerned to conquer the republican party than to conquer the rebels, then never did any men's attitude more belie their spirit. That your purpose is to inspire your party with the deepest distrust of the government, is too obvious for even you to deny. That your success in this would complete the ruin of your country, you may not see. Nevertheless you would see it, were you not blinded by party zeal. I think you will not succeed. I think you will not be able to carry with you the county and town leaders of your party, much less the party itself. Strong as is the partisan spirit in your party, I think the spirit of patriotism in it is stronger. I believe you will not be able to rally an opposition party at the north. As there is but one party at the south, so there will be but one at the north. All the south is for the rebellion, and all the north will be against it.

I believe that the government will stand, and that you will fall. I believe that the democratic as well as the republican party, will consent to postpone the prosecution of party purposes, and the gratification of party predilections, until the rebellion shall be conquered, and the country safe. That done and I shall be as willing to see each party go its own way, as I shall be to see all the wrongs of the south, (if there are any) abundantly redressed, when she shall have ceased from her conspiracy, and laid down her arms. But a curse upon the party that raises its head before the war is ended. And not one word of peace, nor one leaf of the olive branch, nor one concession, however small, to the rebels.—Much as they are worth, and they are worth much, because they are our fellow men, the government and the nation are worth vastly more; and both government and the nation will perish if there shall be the slightest stooping to those who are in arms against both."

War Meeting Last Night.

This meeting was well attended last evening, and the commencement made of what we hope will prove an efficient and practical organization, which will concentrate the discursive efforts of the past season. The committee appointed to report a plan of organization "by which the resources of Rock county in men and means shall be made effective in the present crisis of our country," consists of Messrs. H. N. Comstock, Hamilton Richardson, H. C. Tilton, S. C. Spaulding and Edward McKey. We learn that the committee held a meeting this morning and appointed Messrs. Richardson and Tilton to wait upon the Governor and procure such information, and make, if possible, such arrangements as will aid the object of the meeting.

Another good feature of the meeting was the appointment of a committee, consisting of R. B. Treat, W. M. Tallman, S. J. M. Putnam, S. C. Burnham and C. G. Williams, to aid Mr. Ruger in the formation of a company of sappers and miners, by providing for the board of the men before leaving for duty.

The meeting adjourned to meet again at the call of the committee on a plan of organisation.

LIEUT. RUGER'S COMPANY.—It will be seen by a notice from Lieut. Ruger that the time for which he will receive enlistments expires next Saturday; consequently those who desire to go with him must report themselves as soon as that time. The inducements for mechanics and laborers to engage in this service are such that a large company will probably be organized. See the notice of Lieut. R.

SENATOR DOUGLAS' LAST LETTER.—We publish this letter on our first page today. It is as timely and appropriate as when it was written, and its patriotic sentiments should be faithfully cherished.

JANESVILLE FIRE ZOUAVES.—In a few days this company will depart for Camp Randall, and be mustered into one of the regiments now being formed by the state. It is composed of excellent material, both men and officers. They have not yet enlisted quite all the men they need to make up the maximum number. This opportunity should not be suffered to pass, by those who wish to volunteer. We venture to say that no one can find in any company in the state better officers—those who will be more kind and considerate towards their men, while at the same time they are brave and capable. We hope there will be no hesitation in filling up the company. The pay is liberal; better perhaps than can be expected in these times of uncertain employment, in any business. The remuneration is constant, whether the soldier is sick or well. Clothing is furnished, and medical attendance without cost. At the end of the war there will be a bounty of $100 paid to each soldier. Taking all these things into consideration, the wages for single man will be equal to twenty dollars, and to a man of family, twenty-five dollars per month. The remuneration is liberal, while the inducements of a patriotic nature were never, in any war of which history gives any account, to be compared with those which now call our people to arms.

It is to be hoped that those who have concluded to join the Fire Zouaves of this city will all come forward without delay and signify their intentions. No one, we think, should hesitate on account of the possibility of the formation of other companies or regiments. All these contingencies are uncertain, while the chance is now open to unite with a good company. Volunteers cannot do better by delaying the matter, but should join at once.

"WAIT FOR THE BIG SHOW."—Next Saturday the "Big Show" advertised in our columns will exhibit in this city. It combines the attractions of a menagerie and circus, and both are to be seen for the price of either one if separately exhibited. As the work in the harvest field is about finished, there is likely to be a large crowd of people in town to see the show.

OFF FOR MADISON.—We understand that the Fire Zouaves of this city have orders to go to Madison on Tuesday morning next.

WASHINGTON ENGINE CO. NO. 3.—The regular monthly meeting of this company will be held at their house next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Let every member be on hand. J. T. WILCOX, Sec'y.

TRINITY CHURCH.—The annual renting of slips in Trinity Church will take place on Monday, Sept. 2d, at 10½ o'clock A. M., in the church. aug23d7d

LAPPIN'S HALL TO-NIGHT.—The concert of Miss Richings will be given to-night at Lappin's Hall. Don't fail to attend.—You will be well repaid for the expenditure of your time and money. The entertainment will be diversified, and every one will be especially pleased with some part of it while the whole will give satisfaction.

DEATH OF WARREN M. GRAHAM.—We have, at last, the sad, but long-expected intelligence that young GRAHAM died yesterday, at Hagerstown, Md., from wounds received at the battle of Falling Waters.—For many weeks he has lingered between life and death, but the terible Minnie balls that pierced his body were too severe for even his iron constitution. He received every attention during his last illness; his mother and father were both present, so all that love and skill could do have been tried in vain.—Wisconsin.

☞ Dr. S. P. Thornhill, of Hudson, formerly a resident of this city, has been commissioned as surgeon of the 8th regiment.

Resolutions of Water Witch Engine Company No. 2.

At a meeting of the above company, held at their hall, Tuesday evening, Aug. 27th, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted and ordered to be published:—

WHEREAS: Several of the members of Water Witch Engine Co. No. 2 have nobly responded to the call of their country and enlisted to fight her battles; and

WHEREAS, We the members of said company not only feel a deep interest in the cause they have espoused—but also in the individual welfare of those, who have so recently been connected with us, by the closest ties of friendship. And,

WHEREAS: Some of those who have thus severed their connection with us, have in the past, held offices of honor and trust, in our organization—offices, the duties of which they have always well and faithfully discharged. Therefore,

Resolved, That in the resignation of our late Foreman, C. P. KING, who has so long been one of our members, and who during his connection with us, has held various positions in our company from that of hose boy to foreman, filling each and all of them with honor to himself and credit to our organization—we lose the society of an excellent fireman and officer,—a kind-hearted and whole souled friend, and one whom we confidently believe, will in the battle-field, as 1st Lieut. of the Fire Zouaves of this city, do credit to himself, to his country, and the company of which he has so long been an honored member.

Resolved, That in the appointment of our late secretary, WM. H. SARGENT, as Orderly Sergeant of the Fire Zouaves, we recognize one which was eminently fit to have been made, and that while as secretary of our company he made a most accomplished officer, so we believe that as orderly sergeant of the Fire Zouaves, he will exhibit the same industry and energy, in the discharge of his official duties, and upon the field of danger, will act as only becomes the brave man, and patriotic soldier.

Resolved, That while we sincerely regret being compelled to part with our friends and companions, all of whom have endeared themselves to us by years of the closest intimacy and companionship, we are yet reconciled to their loss by the knowledge, that duty and patriotism have called them to the defence of "the constitution and the laws,"—that we have the most implicit faith in their courage and in the earnestness of purpose which has induced them to respond to that call; and we believe, not doubtingly but confidently, that when in front of the traitorous foe, upon the bloody-field, they will respond to the command of their officers with as much of alacrity as heretofore in battles with the fire, they have answered with their might to the call of King's, "NOW THEN WITH A WILL, MY BOYS, BRAKE HER DOWN." Believing this, we have only to say to our late friends and companions, "Go, and may the God of battles guard you in the hour of danger." Go, and may the flag of the free through your agency and such as you, again float over the freest and proudest republic on earth. Go! and after the work shall have been accomplished, living you will receive the plaudits of millions of patriots; dying you will be mourned by a grateful people, and under all circumstances, you will possess the glorious consolation of having discharged well that duty, which wins the soldier's wreath, or decks the soldier's grave.

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions, signed by the foreman and secretary, be published in the daily papers of this city.

H. RICHARDS, Ass't Foreman.
ADAM SKELLY, Secretary pro tem.

A BETTER PROSPECT.—Since a military board of examination has been established to examine the qualifications of all commissioned officers, 225 volunteer officers have resigned. Probably many of these officers feared the result of an examination, in exposing their want of qualifications. There is good reason to believe that those who are retained, or will be accepted hereafter, will be qualified for their responsible duties.

THE DIFFERENCE.—Every man at the North is free to choose whether he will go into this war or stay at home. Every man at the south is compelled to go into the ranks whether he will or no. No man at the North lives under any apprehension as to the safety of his home, his person his property there. No man at the south is exempt from a constant fear, that, sooner or later, the war will come, with all its horrors, to his very door.

The Northern soldier, if he succeeds maintains a great government; if he fails is a patriot dying at his post of duty. The southern soldier, if he succeeds, consigus a nation to anarchy: if he fails is a disgraced traitor. The one carries the flag in hand, the other a halter about his neck.

In a word the south fights with desperation, and because it is desperate, puts forth all its strength at the start. Hence, its victories must be won then if at all. The North only by degrees brings out its vast resources, and will have strength in reserve after the south is exhausted. Hence, its victories may be slow in coming, but they are inevitable at last, and will be permanent.

AN EXAMPLE TO BE IMITATED.—If our army and navy have presented some lamentable instances of disaffection and desertion of duty the heroism and patriotic devotion that are being daily displayed by the loyal members of both professious more than compensate for the pain which such spectacles have afforded. We give the following extract from a letter from a distinguished naval officer now in the blockading squadron, to his wife, as an example which animates both services.

"I want you to live in the most frugal manner possible, and if you can save money from your income by the strictest economy, loan it to the government, if it be but fifty dollars, or a hundred dollars, to assist in the smallest mite to maintain the Constitution of the United States and the supremacy of the law. The present conditon of our once happy country is enough to make 'the angels weep.'"

The feelings suggested by the above is one of the pleasures that men like the writer are in the public service and not only willing to fight but to economize for the Union.—New York Herald-

COTTON SHIPPED TO EUROPE FROM THIS PORT.—During the past week a large quantity of cotton has arrived at this port, from Providence, for the purpose of being shipped to Europe. This is owing no doubt to most of the factories in Lowell being closed and the price of cotton at present is from sixteen to eighteen cents per pound. The stores in Providence are said to be full.—N. Y. Eve. Post, 23d.

FEW DIE AND NONE RESIGN.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune says:—

No applications have been made under the new retiring law for the navy. Consequently, no board has been called together. It is not improbable that broad hints will be given to some old gentlemen, unless they move in this matter speedily.

Sappers and Miners, Attention!

You will report yourselves at Janesville on or before Saturday, August 31st. You will leave here September 2d, on the morning train for Chicago, and will there be mustered into the service of the United States and receive your equipments, going thence directly to St. Louis. Let no man fail to respond. Quarters are provided for you. EDWARD RUGER,
Acting Lieut. Eng'r Reg't of the West.

MEN AND PATRIOTS!

Pause and reflect. Your country needs your service! Will you respond? Then enlist with the Sappers and Miners, and join our own brave soldiers of the west under the gallant Fremont.

Great inducements are offered. It is the highest and best branch of the service and the best pay. Be true sons of the republic and come forward and enlist. Mechanics enlist! Men not mechanics enlist! I will receive all strong men and true, that come. Let every man that readeth come. For further particulars enquire of the undersigned, office in county building with clerk of the board, or at first door south of Lawrence & Atwood's store. EDWARD RUGER,
Janesville, August 27th, 1861. Acting Lieut.

INDISPENSABLE.—If you want healthy, light bread, biscuit and pastry of all kinds, use only D. B. De Land & Co.'s Chemical Saleratus. It is truly the "housewife's favorite," and is indispensable in producing the above results. You can get it of all respectable dealers everywhere.

ONE WAY TO CIRCULATE REBEL SHEETS.—The New York News being hard up for subscribers, on account of its rabid secession proclivities, is being distributed gratuitously to all who will take it. Here is one the secrets, "confidential" circulars;

CONFIDENTIAL.

Mr.— Sir:—I understand you to be an influential man of—county. I take the liberty of sending you our paper, the Daily News, for one month. The cost is defrayed by a society, whose object is to enlist the talent of the state in favor of peace measures. Should you think proper to become a subsciber after that date, please signify the same.

HOW A MAN FEELS WHEN HE IS WOUNDED, AND HOW IT GOES TO BE SHOT AT.—We take the following from a letter written by one of the gallant Iowa volunteers, who fought in the battle near Springfield, Missouri:

I was standing, or rather kneeling, behind a little bush, reloading my musket, just before the rebels engaged in this close work retreated. Suddenly I felt a sharp pain in the shoulder, and fell to the ground. Jumping up, one of our boys asked me if I was hurt. I replied I thought not, drew up my musket to fire, when he said: "Yes, you are shot right through the shoulder." I think it was this remark, more than the wound, which caused the field, all at once, to commence whirling around me in a very strange manner. I started to leave it, with a half ounce musket ball in my shoulder, and once or twice fell down with dizziness; but in a short time recovered sufficiently to be able to walk back to Springfield, nine miles, where the ball was taken out. I was very much pleased to find that the wound was not a dangerous one.

In the battle, every sensation was drowned in excitement. We had no time to think of being killed, except when standing to be shot at by cannon, without a chance to shoot back. This, to us, was the most trying part of the battle. When we had a chance to use our muskets, every thought and feeling was gone, except the one thought of shooting down the rebels as rapidly as possible. Our regiment certainly did its share of the work that day.

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette,
BY BUMP & GRAY.
GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, AUGUST 28, 1861.

The wheat market was dull to-day, and with fair receipts and unfavorable advices from the lake shore prices fell off 4@5c per bushel. Sales of about 3,000 bushels at 55@60 for milling and 45@50 for shipping, closing quiet at those figures. Receipts of coarse grains fair and market rather dull at quotations below.

A good proportion of the wheat now coming forward is from the new crop and, as we anticipated, the quality is generally rather common, the berry being small and a good deal of the wheat is badly shrunken, and will not weigh more than 56 pounds to the measured bushel. Taking the light yield and low prices together makes farmers complain considerably. The yield of wheat per acre through Rock county will not exceed twelve bushels.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—good to best milling spring 55a60; fair to good dry shipping 45a50; rejected 20a40.

CORN—15a18 per 60 lbs. shelled, and 14a16c per 72 lbs., ear.

OATS—quiet at 14a15.

RYE—quiet at 20a25c per 60 lbs.

BARLEY—dull sale at 15a25c per 50 lbs., common to good quality.

TIMOTHY SEED—dull at 1.49a1.75 per 46 lbs.

POTATOES—new 25a35c per bushel.

BUTTER—plenty at 10a12½c fair to choice roll.

EGGS—plenty and dull at 6c per dozen.

WOOL—ranges at 15a27c for common to choice fair clean clips.

HIDES—Green, 2½@3; Dry, 5a7.

FLOUR—spring at retail 2.25, per 100 lbs.

POULTRY—dressed turkeys, 6½a7; chickens, 5a6

SHEEP PELTS—range from [illegible] each.

To Holders of Postage Stamps.

I AM instructed by the Post Office Department and am now prepared to exchange stamps of the new style for an equivalent amount of the old issue, during a period of six days from the date of this notice, and that the latter will not thereafter be received in payment of postage on letters sent from this office.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.
